

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

It is extremely difficult to communicate my heartfelt gratitude to my thesis supervisor Dr. S. Aliul H. Rizvi who has devoted hundreds of days and weekend hours to the creation of the present work, and participated with dedication in the process of its refinement. I sincerely express my thanks to him for his most valuable auspices, incessant encouragement and constant help which he bestowed on me to demystify the hardles falling on my way. The encouragement and help I received from him has been simply beyond description. Through his expert guidance and esteemed supervision I emerged successful in translating my long cherished aspirations into an ever lasting entity, in the form of the present work.

I also feel indebted to Prof. S. Athar H. Rizvi, Chairman, Department of Mechanical Engineering for the very kind support he has been extending to me through the ~~entire tenure~~ of my experimental work. I am also thankful to my teachers M/s A R Khan, Imtiyaz A Khan and many others whom I benefited academically during my stay in India. To Dr. Zaheer Haider one of the senior faculty members of the Department I extend my gratitude for sparing one of his personal PCs to be utilised in my experimentation pertaining to my PhD work.

I am also thankful to Mr. M. Saeeduddin Senior Technical Assistant in Ergonomics Laboratory of the Department for extending his full cooperation in the preparation and operation of my experimental set-up. Thanks are also due to all the subjects who had participated in this research. Other staff members of Mechanical Engineering Department were equally helpful in every sense of the word. I thank them all. I would like also to thank Mr. Jitendra Kumar Gupta of ICON COMPUTERS AND GRAPHICS, Aligarh, who ~~took~~ a lot of pains in composing this Thesis.

I gratefully acknowledge for every kind of support and encouragement that I received from my parents and brothers during my PhD work which otherwise might not have been sible to be undertaken by me.

Finally, I express my thanks and immeasurable gratitude to my wife who along with the child has suffered the predicament travail from our home land.
