ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I wish to express my gratitude to my supervisor Professor Abdul Azim for his encouragement, constructive comment and valuable guidance in completing this thesis.

I am also grateful to Professor Iqtidar Hussain Khan for his kind encouragement in pursuing this research.

I will fail in my duty if I do not express my deep sense of gratitude to Professor William Diver, who had come to attend a conference at A.M.U. and Professor B.G. Misra, visiting Professor at A.M.U. for their valuable suggestions.

My sincere thanks are also due to Dr. Fatihi (Reader in the Deptt.) for his help, advice and active encouragement, which was a source of inspiration for getting this work completed.

I am also indebted to Dr. M. Aslam Parvez (JNU Delhi) and Dr. Khaliq Anjum (Director, Urdu Ghar Delhi) for their help in introducing me to many artisans, craftsmen and labourers of Old Delhi living in the vicinity of Jama Masjid.

I have benefited a lot from discussions with my teachers and colleagues in the department. It would be impossible to record my thanks to all of them individually, but it would be wrong on my part if I do not mention Mrs. Shabana Hameed, Mr. Mohd. Nadeem and Mr. Tabrez Mughis for their sincere help.
My family, particularly my parents, have provided me with moral and material support, without which it would have been impossible to complete this work. I am grateful to them for their affection and assistance.

I am also thankful to the staff of M.A. Library, A.M.U. and Mr. Najeebul Hasan of the Seminar Library and other staff members of the department for their help and assistance.

While my debts, both general and specific, are many in a venture of this sort, I accept the sole responsibility for any errors of fact or interpretation that might have, inadvertently, crept into the thesis.

Finally, I must thank Mr. S.M. Rais Zaidi who has taken pains in typing the manuscripts with utmost care.
