Acknowledgement

I am highly obliged to the Almighty God who always blessed me with all the strength when and where I felt need and when I felt slightly derailed from the path.

First of all, I deem it a great privilege to place on record my deep sense of gratitude to my supervisor Prof. (Dr.) Akhlaq Ahmad, Dean & Chairman, Faculty of Law, who despite his preoccupations and busy schedules, was kind enough to support me during the course of study and whose help and encouragement have a long way in completion of this thesis.

I record with thanks my indebtedness to Prof. (Dr.) Ishaque Qureshi, Ex Dean & Chairman, Faculty of Law, who kindled the flames of learning in me and gave constant motivation throughout the course of my study. No doubt without his constant encouragement it would not have been possible for me to complete this academic venture. I shall also remain indebted to all my worthy teachers who have provided invaluable help to me in their respective ways.

I feel immense pleasure to record my gratitude to the librarian of company affairs, Mrs. Radha Krishinan for her support and help in making available the required material. I am also thankful to library staff of Indian Law Institute, Library of South Campus, DU, Law Faculty Library, DU, Ratan Tata Library, Delhi School of Economics, Central Reference Library, DU, Institute of Chartered Secretary, American Center, New Delhi, British Council, New Delhi, Library of Delhi High Court, Delhi Stock Exchange, Law Seminar,
AMU and Maulana Azad Library, AMU for their full cooperation in process of collection of material

My special gratitude express to my family members who provided needed support and encouragement not only during the course of my study but at every step of my carrier. Their contribution is immeasurable.

Last but not least I express my gratitude to my friends for their kind support and encouragement.
