LIST OF TABLES

1.1 Chief causes of mortality in Colonial South India, 1874-1884. 22
1.2 Number of patients treated for different diseases at Sree Kanyaka Parameswarar Devasthanam Hospital, 1920–21. 44
2.1 Community-wise patient population, Cost of medicine and Cost per head at the Lee Chengalvaraya Naicker’s Ayurvedic Institute, Madras, 1921-22. 45
2.2 Number of patients treated for different diseases at Sree Kanyaka Parameswarar Devasthanam Hospital, 1920−21. 54
2.3 Gender and Community-wise classification of patients in Madras Ayurvedic College dispensary, 1915. 46
2.4 Number of in-door and out-door patients treated for different diseases in the dispensaries of Colonial south India, 1889 59
2.5 Gender-wise classification of patients in dispensaries of Colonial South India, 1893. 60
2.6 Daily average beds occupied in Colonial hospitals, Madras, 1904-04. 64
2.7 Diseases of in-door and out-door patients in the dispensaries of Colonial South India, 1925. 65
3.1 Percentage of success obtained from different kinds of lymph, 1907-08 80
3.2 Primary vaccination and Re-vaccination statistics, 1888-89. 83
3.3 Protection conferred on Vaccinated over Unvaccinated in the City of Madras, 1920. 89
4.1 Water Supply Schemes completed and those under construction in different towns of South India, 1890-1911. 136-37
4.2 Expenditure on Sanitation by the Government of Madras, 1912-1929. 140
4.3 Cost of Drainage works in Madras per head of population 141
4.4 Expenditure of District Municipalities on Public Health including drainage, water supply and conservancy, 1880-1930. 144
5.1 Extent of Medical relief in Colonial South India. 168
6.1 Number of midwives in the district and number of labour cases attended under Dufferin Scheme, 1888 and 1891. 209
6.2 Number and percentage of labour cases attended by midwives, 1921. 222