ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

At the outset, I bow before the Almighty Allah, the creator, the saviour of all creation, to whom I owe all my success, achievements whatever little may be. It is indeed His blessings which provided me with enough zeal to complete my present venture.

Words fail to express my profound sense of gratitude and obligations towards my supervisor Prof. Saleem Akhtar (former-Dean & Chairman) Department of Law, A.M.U, Aligarh, for his skilful guidance, cognate attitude and incessant encouragement to complete this work. During the course of this study, despite of his busy schedule, he spared his valuable time whenever I needed his help. His thoughtful criticism, fruitful suggestions and very meticulous checking of all work have made this work more enjoyable and even more reader friendly.

I am highly indebted to my erudite teacher Prof. Iqbal Ali Khan (Dean and Chairman) Faculty of Law, A.M.U, Aligarh for his vision, direction, valuable suggestions, scholarly guidance, help, inspiration and continuous encouragement right from the inception to the culmination of this work. He has always been a source of strength, inspiration and confidence for me.

In the process of the completion of this thesis, I received valuable help from plural number of academic personalities and I would like to avail this opportunity to thank them nevertheless, the following names deserved special mention.

I wish to express my most sincere and profound gratitude to Prof. Akhlaq Ahmad (former-Dean and Chairman) and Prof. Mohd. Shabbir Ahmad, Faculty of Law, A.M.U.
