Acknowledgments

Beginning with the name of Allah, the true Mentor of our lives, All the praises and thanks be to Him, the Almighty Creator and sustainer of the world who made it possible for me to complete this work by His help and grace.

When years of earnest research finally translates into a neatly written thesis, it is easy to take all the credit and pat oneself on the back for a gigantic task accomplished. However, the fact remains, that no work of such magnitude is possible without a concealed network of support system available to the research scholar. I deem myself both lucky and blessed to have the association of people who went out of their way to lend me a helping hand even before I asked for it. Though mere words won't do, but still would like to put on record my deep gratitude to those who helped me in accomplishing this task.

"A child without the guidance is like a physique without the bones" can best be conceived by one having lost her parents, but I feel lucky enough that I am blessed by my Uncle Dr. Syed Sibtéy Hasan, Reader Department of Islamic Studies, A.M.U., as my patron and one, who has suffered a lot for being associated with me. It is, I feel honoured to put on record, my deep veneration for him. It was actually his earnest desire only that brought me pulled to this position. No money in the world can pay the debt I owe to him.
I must express my deep sense of gratitude and indebtedness to my former supervisor Prof. M. Azam Qasmi, Department of Islamic Studies A.M.U., who helped and guided me at every stage of the progress of my work. He had a thorough knowledge and deep understanding of his subject. I have benefited from his invaluable suggestions, and encouragement provided to me from time to time, without whose constant help, genuine devotion, and whole-hearted cooperation this work would not have been completed.

I concede whatever is really appreciable in the work is the result of the supervision of Prof. Sayyid Ahsan, my Supervisor and the Chairman of the Department of Islamic Studies. I am highly indebted to him for providing me all necessary facilities and the material incentive without which this work could hardly have been complete. He has been keen enough in looking over some minute things even I feel proud for being associated with him and for getting my thesis checked by two supervisors now.

Though everybody in the department helped me out in this work but a few of them delved deep into what I feel necessary to acknowledge like former chairman Prof. M. Yasin Mazher Siddiqui, former chairman Prof. Abdul Ali, Prof. Azduddin Khan, Prof. M. Salim Kidwai, Prof. Zafarul Islam and all my teachers in the Department of Islamic Studies for their valuable suggestions and encouragement.

I thank all my seniors especially Dr. Aijaz Ahmad, Dr. Bilal Ahmad Kutty, Dr. Ghazanfar Ali Khan and Dr. Imtiazul Hoda for their encouragement and help. I am also thankful to Arshad Ahmad Salroo and all my friends who have inspired and helped me whose names cannot be acknowledge individually.

Sincere thanks are also due to the Assistant Librarian Mr. Kabir Ahmad Khan, Mr. Mohd. Khalid Hameed, Mr. Mohd. Anees and other staff of the library for their kind help. Besides, I also feel indebted to the office staff of the Department especially Mr. Zakir Ali Beg and Mr. Mohd. Salman for extending all the administrative help.

I am also thankful to my brothers Mr. Khalid Rasheed and Mr. Adil Rasheed for their indispensable help and kind cooperation.

Finally I must thank Mr. Mohd. Asif Siddiqui and Mr. Hammadun Naseer (Hira Computer World) for typing my thesis. I must also acknowledge that any shortcomings in the thesis are undoubtedly mine.
