ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

All praises to Allah Taala who enabled me to complete my research work on “LEGAL STATUS OF INDIA IN ISLAM – AN ANALYTICAL STUDY OF APPROACHES OF INDO-PAK ULAMA IN THE MODERN TIMES”.

I feel obliged to my supervisor Dr. Zafarul Islam for his guidance, encouragement and co-operation without which the present research work would not have been completed.

I like to express my deep sense of gratitude to Prof. Abdul Ali, Chairman Department of Islamic Studies who inspired and encouraged me in my studies and helped me whenever I approached him in connection with my research work. I am also indebted to Prof. Muhammad Yasin Mazhar Siddiqui, Director, Shah Waliullah Research Cell, Institute of Islamic Studies, whose valuable guidance has been quite helpful to me in carrying on my academic works. I am also grateful to all other respectable teachers of Department of Islamic Studies especially Dr. Sayid Ahsan who gave me their affection and extended co-operation to me whenever I turned to them.

The Staff of the Library of the Institute of Islamic Studies especially Kabir Ahmad Khan, Assistant Librarian are highly appreciable for their generous co-operation to me. I am thankful to all of them. In Aligarh, I also consulted Maulana Azad Library, Seminar Library, Sunni Theology, Idarah Tahqiq wa Tasnif-i Islami and Center for Religious Studies and Guidance for my research work. I am grateful to their Staff members for their help and co-operation.

My thanks are also due to the in-charge and staff of all those libraries which I visited for collection of material for my Ph.D. thesis. I was very much impressed by their much needed assistance and co-operation. These included the library of Darul Ulum (Deoband), Jamiatul Falah (Bilaryaganj) Darul Musannifeen (Azamgarh) and Islamic Fiqh Academy (Delhi).

I cannot forget my class mates, room partners and co-researchers whose friendship, support and suggestions came to my rescue in many moments of trial during my student life. I am also thankful to all Kashmiri students and scholars in A.M.U. whose brotherly behaviour and continuous support have been source of great encouragement and strengthen for me.

From the core of my heart I pay greatest regard and respect to my family for inspiring and encouraging me in my personal as well as academic life. Truly speaking, they (especially my parents, uncles, sisters and brothers) stand with me shoulder to shoulder and I have no words to express my feelings for their lasting affection, constant help and unfailing guidance to me in every step of my life.

Lastly, the fact is that:

\[
\text{واتوفيقى الإيالله العلي العظيم}
\]

\[
\text{Ali Mohd. Bhat}
\]