In the Name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful.

This thesis would not have been completed, had it not been for the contribution and assistance, intellectual and otherwise, of innumerable individuals.

With a profound sense of gratitude I express my deepest sincere thanks to my supervisor, Prof. Dr. Sayyid Ahsan, the Chairman Department of Islamic Studies, Aligarh Muslim University, without whom this thesis work would never have been a reality. At the very outset, I feel indebted to him for his readily accessible guidance and constant encouragement. His painstaking efforts in improving the quality of the work have been of inestimable value and his kindly and timely cooperation made it possible for me to complete this work. I am very proud to have been able to work with him and to have his guidance to shape my thought.

Words fail me to express my immense gratitude and deep indebtedness to my parents for their wise guidelines and constant financial support throughout my stay and study in India. Without their generosity it would not have been possible for me to make my dream come true.

I would like to take this opportunity to express my thanks to Dr. Ahmad Omar Chapakia, Vice Rector of Yala Islamic College, and Dr. Jaran Ma'luleem, Reader in Thammasart University, Dr. Imtiazul Hoda, Mr. Kabir Ahmad Khan, Mr. Khalid Hameed, Mr. Zakir Ali Beg, Mr. M. Salman, Mr.
Saleem Ahmad, and my senior scholars Dr. Abduroning Suetair, Dr. Samart Thongthua, Dr. Shafie Adam, Dr. Taha Ahmad Hasan of Taiz University of Yemen, for their incalculable helps and encouragements.

My acknowledgement would not be completed without expressing my deep and sincere thanks to Ms. Pohathai Soonsan for her constant support and encouragement. And also I wish to express my gratitude to Mr. Faisal Da'oh, Mr. Ma'mukis Dolah, and all of my research scholar friends for their motivations and supports.
