ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First and foremost I wish to express my profound gratitude to my supervisor Professor Irfan Habib for his guidance and interest in my research work. Throughout my studies at A.M.U., I had the good fortune of being associated with him.

I am indebted to Mr. Salman G. Hashmi, Vice-Principal Incharge, Zakir Husain Evening College, Delhi University for allowing me latitude in respect of my research pursuits.

It is my pleasant duty to acknowledge the Librarian and staff of Research Library, Department of History, AMU; Maulana Azad Library AMU; Regional Records Office, Allahabad; U.P. State Archives, Lucknow; Tagore Library Lucknow University; Zakir Husain Evening College Library, Delhi; and the Director, Indian Institute of Islamic Studies, New Delhi; National Archives of India, New Delhi; for allowing me to use their collections and obtain photo-copies of a number of important documents.

I am beholden to all my teachers, especially Dr. Shireen Moosvi who helped me a lot in respect of a number of calculations and understanding of statistical data. Dr. I. A. Zilli and Dr. Iqbal Husain were kind enough to help me decipher a number of multilingual Persian documents, which I got photo-copied from various libraries and Archives. Mr. Muhammad Azam Qasmi, constantly encouraged my research pursuits. Mr. Faiz Habib was good enough to draw the maps included in the thesis. Mr. Zahoor A. Khan very kindly gave some final touches to them.

Thanks are due to my colleagues and friends Mr. Iftikhar A. Khan, Dr. Yousuf Ansari, Mr. K.A.S.M. Ishrat Alam, Mr. Arshad Islam and Mr. Ehsanullah, who helped me in final stages of the preparation of the thesis.

Mr. Azmatullah Qureishy and Mr. Anwar Rizvi have, between them, typed the thesis and I am thankful to both.

Last, but not the least, I am deeply indebted to my mother, brothers and sisters for their love and affection. They have supported me morally and materially during the course of my studies. The memory of my father, as a constant sources of inspiration, shall ever remain fresh to me.
