ADMINISTRATIVE RECORDS

1. Allahabad Documents, preserved at State Archives (U.P.), Allahabad, consist of farmans, sale-deeds, gift-deeds, judgements of the qazi's court, etc., and other documents concerning grants. A few of the documents belong to the 16th, while majority of them belong to 17th and 18th centuries.

Jaipur records (in Persian) preserved at State Archives, Bikaner, Rajasthan.

2. Khutut-i-Maharajgan or the letters, written by the Imperial officials high and low and private persons, addressed to the Rajas of Amer.

3. Mutafarriq-i-Maharajgan or miscellaneous letters addressed to the Rajas of Amer. They are 5459 in number and date from 1665 to 1716.

4. Akhbarat-i-Darbar-i-Mualla. The Court bulletins or news-letters from the imperial court, sent by the agents of Rajas of Amer, containing brief accounts of daily occurrences at the Mughal darbar and reporting the main transactions publicly contracted at the court, for example the appointment of various officials, their promotions, reduction in mansab and posts and transfers, news received from various provinces, income and expenditure and Emperor's instructions and decisions on various problems of administration. The above akhbarat in all consist of 17,899 folios (at Bikaner). The akhbars for the early years of Aurangzeb's reign have been mixed up with those of Bahadur Shah's reign. However, from 9th regnal year (of Aurangzeb) onwards they are bound up separately in bundles one for each year.
