I wish to express my deep appreciation and heartfelt devotion to my supervisor Dr. Mohammad Shafi, Professor Emeritus, Department of Geography, Muslim University, Aligarh, who inspite of his pre-occupations has greatly encouraged me and gave me valuable guidance and painstaking efforts during all the phases of this research. I am particularly grateful to him for his keen interest and assistance in the preparation of this manuscript at the expense of his personal commitments and I am sure, without his help the present work could have hardly been accomplished.

I also take it as a pleasant duty to express my grateful thanks to Professor S. M. Rafiullah, Ex-chairman, Department of Geography for his inspiration and timely suggestions during the preparation of the manuscript. My thanks are also due to Professor M. Farroq Siddiqui, Chairman and Professor Abdul Aziz, Professor Mehdi Raza, Professor K. Z. Amani and Dr. Asjad Hussin Khan, Reader in Department of Geography, for their interest and for providing me necessary facilities during the period of my research.

I express my thanks and show great indebtedness to Dr. Mohammad Wasim Abbas, Reader in Department of Industrial Engg. and Mr. Mohammad Azam, Computer Centre, Muslim University, Aligarh for extending help to me in computational process and programming of the data with excellent results for the present research. I offer also sincere thanks to Mr. Ashfaque Ahmad, Department of Applied Engineering for his timely help with some valuable results required in my research work.

Appreciation is expressed to all my friends, colleagues and well-wishers with particular mention to Mr. Mohammad Zaki Siddiqui, Alhaj Mansoor Ali Farooqui, Mr. Abdul Majeed, Dr. Firoz Khan, Jamia Millia Islamia, New Delhi, Late Dr. Mohammad Zawwar Hussain Siddiqui, G. F. College Shahjahanpur, Dr. Sayeed Ahmad Khan, Dr. Farasat Ali Siddiqui and Aziz-ur-Rahman Khan, Department of Geography, A. M. U. Aligarh for their valuable assistance and cooperation in this work from time to time.

I wish to express my thanks to my brother Dr. Anis-ur-Rahman Khan, Agricultural Scientist, Department of Agricultural Engineering, Indian Institute of Technology, Kharagpur, who smilingly endured all the possible labour for electro-xeroxing of the thesis and also beared the inconvenience of reading the proofs of the final script, arranging tables, diagrams and of getting the binding of the thesis so nicely done within reasonably a short time.

Again I offer my thanks to Professor R. B. Misra, Reliability Engineering Centre, Dr. R. C. Srivastava, Agricultural Engineering, Department and Mr. Tarun Kumar Tiary, C. R. F. of Indian Institute of Technology, Kharagpur for their timely help in bringing out this thesis in the present form.
It is rather difficult to state what I owe to other authors for their books, so I deeply acknowledge and express my great indebtedness to all of them whose contributions to Medical Geography has helped me in bringing out this thesis in its present form. Also I wish to put on record my sincere appreciation and gratitude to the officials of Ministry of Health and Statistics Department, Government of Uttar Pradesh, Lucknow and Census of India, Uttar Pradesh, (Lucknow) and New Delhi for providing me necessary important data and documents.

I shall be failing in my duty if I do not express my heartfelt gratitude to my late grand-mother and grand-father Janab Abbas Ali Khan, late parents and late sister whose unfailing blessings, constant encouragement and confidence brought me to the present position. All that I have accomplished is a result of the foundation they gave me. I owe my uncles and other family members much gratitude for their support, inspiration and blessings during the course of my academic career.

Special gratitude is extended to my late father-in-law Professor M. H. Khan and to my mother-in-law who constantly blessed, inspired and encouraged me to bring out this thesis in its present form. Similarly, I am deeply indebted to my brother-in-laws Messrs. M.I.R. Khan, A. R. Khan, N. R. Khan, London (UK) and S.R.Khan, Boston (USA) for their encouragement, moral and material support during the course of my research.
career. Again words cannot express my deep feelings and profound gratitude to my wife who inspite of many hardships had inspired me, extended her moral support and showed high patience during this phase of my life. It will not be untrue to acknowledge that her credible assistance was a guiding force for me and any word will be inadequate to express my feelings.

Lastly, I offer my thanks to Mr. Khwaja Moeen Ahmed for preparing the major part of the typescript. Further, I am thankful to working staff in M. Azad Central Library of Muslim University, as well as to Messrs Nazmuddin, Moinuddin Qureshi and Ms. Rana Askary Librarians, Geography Department Seminar Library, for their timely assistance in the preparation of entire manuscript and also bringing it out in the present bounded thesis form.
