Acknowledgements

The following pages are testimony to the fact that to write the thesis I have drawn on various sources and received help and cooperation from many people whose names I may or may not be able to put on record. If I forget to mention a few names of those who in one way or the other have extended help to me in my work, it should, in no way, be considered a sign of ingratitude but rather be interpreted as an instance of human error.

I would like to thank Professor Syeda Nuzhat Zeba, Chairperson, who facilitated the present work with a warm smile. I am indebted to many of my teachers, colleagues, for the inspiration, motivation and words of encouragement they provided me with, particularly Professor A.R. Kidwai, Prof. Adnan Raza, Prof. Suhail Ahsan, Dr. Seemin Hasan, Dr. Shaheena Tarannum and Dr. Rizwan Khan. I would also pay special thanks to my well wishers Dr. Madhur Rahman Suhaib, Dr. Sami Rafiq, Dr. Samina Khan, Dr. Shahla Ghauri, Dr. Akbar Joseph, Dr. Shubhi Abidi and Dr. Vibha Sharma. I would put on record the immense gratitude I feel for Dr. Asim Siddiqui who made his support available in a number of ways. I would express my thanks to Dr. Haris Qadeer, Dr. Ibrar Alam Ansari and Mr. Hamza Khan who devoted their time to read the manuscripts.

I would like to thank Mr. Khan Pervez Rafi, the Seminar Library in-charge, (Department of English), Mr. Sohail and Mr. Akeel, (Department of English) and Mr. Sajid, Seminar Library In-charge, (Women’s Studies), AMU. I thank the staff of Institute of Advanced Studies, Shimla, British Council and American Center, New Delhi for their help.

I would thank my parents for teaching me the importance of knowledge and my brother and sister for giving me support.

Sohail, thanks a lot for providing me with the books and support in a number of ways throughout my engagement in writing the thesis!
