ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

It is beyond doubt that without the help of Allah, the Almighty, this work would not have been possible.

What I am mindful about are the debts of gratitude I owe to the many people (supervisors, teachers, colleagues, friends and relations) who have helped and encouraged me at various stages of this research work.

The topic I undertook was quite challenging but I was fortunate enough to have Dr. Nikhat Taj as my supervisor without whose help and guidance I would not have been able to complete this task. I owe a debt of profound gratitude to her, whose perceptive suggestions have led to some much-needed changes in this study’s final draft and without whose unfailing help, able guidance, and constant encouragement this work would not have seen the light of day.

I am equally thankful for the efforts of my previous supervisor Professor Syed Asim Ali. I am also thankful to Professor S.Z.H. Abidi, Lucknow University, for suggesting this topic for my research and for his support and encouragement.

Similarly, I am thankful to Professor Adnan Raza, Chairman, Department of English, Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh, and to the staff of Department of English, A.M.U., Aligarh for their constant help at every stage.

Special thanks are also due to Professor A.R. Kidwai and Professor Iffat Ara for their help and cooperation.

Special thanks go to Pervez, in charge of the Seminar Library, the staff of Maulana Azad Library for extending all possible help and cooperation.

I am also grateful to Mr. Mohammed Masroor for his constant help and support with so many books and sources that he provided me from Delhi
University and other universities and libraries in Delhi. I am also thankful to Dr. Hussein Habtoor for his constant help and advice.

Sincere thanks are also due to Professor Abdalkareem Yahya Rasa, Rector of Aden University, Yemen; Dr. Ahmed Ali Al-Hamadani, Vice-Rector for Higher Studies and Scientific Research, Aden University, Yemen, for their support in providing me this opportunity to proceed for my higher studies in India.

I am also thankful to Mr. Kafeel A. Khan who painstakingly typed my thesis.

Finally I must acknowledge the affectionate help and support I received from my brothers, Salim and Awadh who undertook all responsibilities of my family in Yemen during my absence for doing this research work in India. My deep sense of gratitude to my mother, my wife, my sons – Ali, Assam and Salim, my daughters – Latifa, Aisha, Fatema, Rahma and Rasha, who have been an eternal inspiration for me. I am grateful to them for their affection, assistance, patience and moral support.
