ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I record my acknowledgement and indebtedness to all the authors and critics and their publications that I have frequently utilized in my work, for I have read and assimilated their thoughts and tried to remain objective and independent of them. And in my last chapter I attempted to rely on my own judgement as far as possible, except when illustrations were needed to lend weight to that particular evaluation and assessment.

Dr. Kausar Husain, my Supervisor has not merely been my official guide but her most affectionate presence has steered me through the difficult terrain of this concerned study. Hence all thanks for her able guidance.

My thankful acknowledgement to Professor Faratullah Khan, Chairman, Department of English, Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh for encouragement of various kind. I am also desirous of thanking Professor Wiquar Husain for his helpful suggestions. This acknowledgement would remain incomplete if on this occasion I fail to remember Professor Maqbool H. Khan. Hence I extend all sincere regards and obligation to my former supervisor.

I feel rather obliged to the English Department Library especially to Mr. Parvez Khan and also Maulana Azad Library for providing me the access to most of the material, incorporated in the present study from the opulent confines of those book-rooms. I also extend my thanks to Mr. Mukhtar Khan of the Department for always helping me.

I am indebted to Professor Shireen Moosvi for being a source of inspiration to me. And finally to some of my friends, Asmat Jahan, Ashma, Shagufta Hasnain, Mr. Faiz Habib and of course Soofia Ahmed for all help and encouragement. I owe my thanks to Mr. Bahauddin also for dexterously typing out this thesis.

And in the end to my children Ashir and Adil for being my sweetest joy.

Shazala Ahmerin Khanam
