ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It is indeed a great pleasure to put on record my profound sense of gratitude and indebtedness to my esteemed teacher and supervisor Prof. Masood Hasan, Professor, Dept. of Economics, A.M.U. were it not for his unparalleled knowledge of the subject benevolent supervisor, affectionate encouragement admixed with sincere criticism and meticulous attention to details, it would have been impossible for the present work to have taken this form.

Words do not exist to express my gratitude to Prof. Ashok Mittal, Chairman, Dept. of Economics, Prof. Akhtar Zaheer Rizvi, Prof. Naseem Zaidi and all my teachers for their affectionate patronage and endless motivation.

I feel more than I would express in words my gratitude to Dr. Mohd. Azhar Reader, Dept. of West Asian Studies, AMU. I owe it to his guidance, constant encouragement and suggestions that have helped to take the present study to the point of completion.

I am thankful to Mr. Buniyad Ali Seminar Librarian, Dept. of Economics for provision of the required materials. My special thanks are also due to the seminar librarians of various departments, AMU.
staff members, MA Library AMU, librarians IIIFT, New Delhi and librarians of central library, JNU.

Mr. Imran Khan, Maqbool Services deserves special credit for the technical brilliance in the immaculate preparation of this thesis.

I humbly thank my parents (Mrs. Qamarun Nisa & Mr. Mohd. Ahmad Khan) for their unstinted support and encouragement. I feel fortunate to have been reared by two most lovable and selfless people I have ever met. I am thankful to my uncle Mr. Naseer Khan, his love and concern is the energy of all my efforts.

Special thanks are due to my brothers Mr. Junaid Khan for helping and guiding me to put computers and internet to best use for the research purpose, Mr. Ovais Khan, Mr. Omair Khan and sister Dr. Lubna Khan, who have always encouraged and motivated me.

I am thankful to Dr. Perwez Khan, Mrs. Salwa Khan, Ms Farah Naaz and all my friends for providing necessary encouragement.
