Acknowledgement

Thanks and reverence to the Almighty Allah who gave me an opportunity to carry out this work. Thanks are also due to Him for enabling several of His vicegerents to help me in the completion of this thesis.

The first and foremost among them is my guide and supervisor Dr. A.A. Islahi whose constant efforts, encouragement, and support benefited me the most. Mr. I.H. Zaki, the Managing Director, Al-Najib Milli Mutual Benefits Ltd. and my former employer helped enormously by providing me a computer and residence without any charges. M.H. Khatkhatay, the spirit behind Islamic financial activities in India, has always been a source of inspiration and guidance to me. Dr. F. R. Faridi provided valuable suggestions and comments. Dr. Javed Ahmad Khan was always a friend in need. The Chairman Department of Economics, Professor N.A. Zaidi was supportive throughout the study. The philanthropic Professor A.Z. Rizvi was no less encouragement to me. Professor Ashok Mittal was kind enough to cooperate during absence of my supervisor.

Several people from outside India like Professor M.N. Siddiqi, Dr. Zamir Iqbal of World Bank, Dr. Nazim Ali of Harvard, A.L.M. Gafoor of The Netherlands and Abdul Wadod of Saudi Arabia provided invaluable suggestions, comments and some materials.

Reserve Bank people especially Dr. Kamala Vijayan, the Chief Librarian, Mr. Shaikh of the Issue Section and two Research Officers Mr. Ajit D. Banger and Mr. V. Srivastava were especially helpful during my Mumbai visit.

Several Internet portals like HIFIP data bank of Harvard, IBF.Net, İslamiq.com, failaka.com, Nidaul Islam, al-Balagh.net and several newspapers and magazines helped me a lot in understanding the subject matters. In this respect special mention must be made to the web sites of International Monetary Fund (IMF), Bank for International Settlement (BIS) and the Reserve Bank of India (RBI).

My family members, relatives, friends, and well-wishers were all quite helpful and supportive throughout my study. Dr. Bachchan Ali Khan, Dr. Asmar Baig, Br. Ashraf Mohamedy and my wife Rabia Khan deserve special mention in this regard.

My sincere thanks and appreciations to all the above mentioned and to all others whose names I could not accommodate. May the Almighty Allah help and guide them all in peace, security and prosperity. (Ameen)

Shariq Nisar
Aligarh