ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

All praise to Allah, the most merciful, the most beneficent whose spiritual inspiration and blessing enabled me to complete the work.

My allotted Supervisor Late Dr. Hifzur Rehman deserves special mention. He was an effective teacher and an able research guide. His absence at this juncture pains me. He had special interest in me. It is he who made me research conscious. His guidance, affectionate treatment and encouragement shaped my career. In fact, he has been a beacon light for me, always leading me on the right path with his enlightening advice and seasoned guidance. May Allah bless him and rest his soul in Jannat(Aameen).

Words are not enough to express my deep sense of gratitude to my assigned supervisor reverend Prof. S.M.Waseem, Dean and Chairman Department of Commerce, A.M.U,Aligarh, who in spite of being busy in the Departmental affairs and academic activities, gave me the liberty to encroach upon his precious time, kept himself always available to me and spent his valuable time in going through the thesis. I as his student and research scholar, will always remember his towering personality, particularly due to his affectionate treatment, constant inspiration, constructive criticism and fruitful suggestions. I found him a constant source of inspiration for academic pursuits. In deed, I am fortunate to have him as my guide because without his cooperation, guidance and moral support I would have remained handicapped.

I must not forget to express my sincere regards and deep indebtedness to Prof. Mahfoozur Rahman, Prof. Sharifur Rehman, Dr. A.Q. Khan and all other members of teaching staff of department of Commerce, A.M.U., Aligarh for their moral encouragement and cooperation throughout the period of study. As for my dearest parents and brothers who have nurtured, sustained and inspired me throughout the completion of this assignment. I confess that no good thing I have ever done, would have been possible without their support and cooperation.

My acknowledgement would be incomplete without thankful mention of cooperation and hospitality extended to me by relatives, friends, and my hostel mates (especially youngesters) who never lagged behind in keeping cheerful at the critical juncture during the completion of work.

My over-riding debt of gratitude to authors whose work I have consulted during the completion of the work.
