ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Word's cannot express the help and affection that I have received from teachers, family and so many other people while carrying out this research work a seemingly impossible task which nevertheless had to be done.

It is my great privilege to express my sincere gratitude to Dr. Nasir Zameer Qureshi, Reader, Department of Commerce, AMU, Aligarh. It is his able guidance, fruitful suggestions and valued advices that inspired me at all stages of this study. It was the constant words of wisdom from my learned supervisor which made it possible for the present study to see the light of the day. I really feel sorry for all the difficulties and trouble that he had to face due to me.

I feel immensely elated in giving vent to my deep senses of gratitude to Prof. Badar Alam Iqbal, Chairman, Department of Commerce, AMU, Aligarh for being kind towards me. I am really grateful for his extended support and wholehearted cooperation in the submission of my thesis. Words are not enough to express my sincere gratitude to such an intellectual and esteemed Professor, on account, in moments of doubt and dilemmas during my research work, his unfathomable presence offered me a safe anchorage.

I express my thankfulness to Prof. Ziauddin Khairoowala, Dean, Faculty of Commerce, AMU, Aligarh. As an expert teacher he is, a student can rely upon him without being rebuked or ridiculed. He has proved the reality that teacher's are the future builders of students and not the destroyer. I really don't have words to express my sincere gratitude to such an expert and best teacher without whose support submission would not have been possible.
I owe my thanks to all the teachers in the Department of Commerce for their support and encouragement during the progress of this work.

Thanks are also due to all my friends for being a ravishing part of my life especially Nooreen, Sanya, Farha, Shahina, Zeenat, Azra, Mutahira and Asra for their continuous cooperation, encouragement and healthy criticism of the work.

I am thankful to all the research scholars in the Department of Commerce for their Moral Support and creative suggestions for the present study.

I feel short of words to express my thanks to my respected and beloved parents to whom I owe my very existence in this world, their continuous encouragement and inspiration has been a pillar of strength in my life.

My words of acknowledgement will remain incomplete if I forget to thanks Mr. Hasnain who painstakingly carried out typing of the entire manuscript and gave the final shape to this thesis.

I express my thanks to Mr. Khwaja Parvez Ahmad, Mr. Mohd. Akram, Mr. Ali Hasan and Mr. Anees Ahmad, of the seminar library of the Department, for their extended cooperation by providing me necessary research material during the present study.

Finally I apologize for the errors, which might have crept in due to oversight. To the best of my efforts, I have minimized them and crave indulgence for those missed.
