ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I bow down before the Almighty who is most merciful and benevolent to me due to whom I am in a position to submit this thesis for the award of Ph. D. degree of Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh.

I pay all my thanks to the Almighty Allah who enabled me to complete this difficult task and it gives me great pleasure to take this opportunity of acknowledging my deep sense of gratitude and obligation to my most humble and soft-hearted respected supervisor, Dr. Husain Abbas, Professor, Department of Civil Engineering, Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh for his able guidance and constant encouragement, without which this work could not have been completed. I shall always be indebted to him for his proper and systematic guidance almost in all dimensions of this thesis work. I do not have words to express his all kindness and help. Moreover, for his all efforts I can do nothing, but only pray for him, for the best returns from the Almighty. May Almighty Allah provide him all the good things of this world and hereafter.

I am very much thankful to Prof. M. Jamil, Chairman, department of Civil Engineering, Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh for providing his affectionate support, encouragement and facilities in the Department. I am grateful to Prof. N.K. Gupta, Ford Chair, Department of Applied Mechanics, Indian Institute of Technology Delhi and Prof. Scott A. Hill, NASA/Langley Research Center, Hampton, USA, for providing data used in the validation of the analytical models developed in the thesis.

Last, but not the least, I extend my deep sense of gratitude to my parents and all my brothers and sisters for their continuous encouragement, good wishes, blessings and assistance which made the completion of this work possible. It is indeed my privilege to put on record my deep sense of love and gratitude to my loving son Naeim and daughters Sara and Zahra who suffered a lot, while I was busy in the completion of this work. I shall be failing in my duties if I do not record the help, constant encouragement, inspiration and support that I received from my wife Iran Rezaeian. Finally, sincere gratitude and devotion to my loving and caring father late Mr. Mer Reza Hosseini who was the chief driving force for my personality and career development.
