ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

It is with the help from several individuals and institutions that I received, I have been able to complete this thesis. It is my duty as well as pleasure to acknowledge the generous help I received from all those who helped me directly or indirectly in the course of my research work, and to express my gratitude to all of them.

I sincerely express my deep sense of gratitude to my teacher as well as research supervisor, Prof. D. Himachalam, Professor & Head, Department of Commerce, who has guided me in pursuing my research work with scholarly advice and meticulous care. This work would not have come to fruition had it not been for his encouragement, his friendly advice and affection at every stage of my work. He also gave me the much needed moral support and impetus to pursue and complete this work. I thank him whole-heartedly.

I acknowledge my gratitude to the Ministry of Power, Government of India, New Delhi and Ministry power, Government of Andhra Pradesh, the then APSEB, and the present APGENCO and APTRANSCO; for their help extended to me to carry out the present Research work. I am highly indebted to them for having given me all the annual reports and the required data for my work. I express my sincere thanks to all the officers of the Power sector concerned and the officials of the electricity department and consumers of all categories at various places of the Tirupati Circle (Chittoor District) for having given me patiently all the required data and information. Without their active help it would not have been completed. Their help has enabled me to prepare this report on the problem of investigation.

It was my good fortune to receive spontaneous help from almost all persons, from the officials down to the personnel on the lowest rungs of various departments actively engaged in the affairs of Power sector. Special thanks are due to the respondent consumers themselves.

I express my deep sense of gratitude and thanks to our beloved Vice-chancellor Prof. P. Murali, S.V. University for his help and encouragement. I am highly thankful to the former Special Officers Prof. B. Dasaradharami Reddy, Prof. G. Chandrasekhar Rao and the present Special Officer Prof. N. Prabhakar Rao of the S.V. University P.G. Centre, Kavali. I am also thankful to all the faculty members Prof. B. Dasaradharami Reddy, Professor of commerce, Dr. P. R. Sivasankar, Dr. M. Chandraiah, Dr. P. Venkata Rao, Associate Professors in the Department of Commerce.

I thank all the office staff at the center, at the Department and the librarian of the P.G. Centre, and of the main library of the University at Tiruapti for the great help they extended during my research work.

I wish to express my sincere thanks to Dr. N. Praveen Kumar Reddy, Mr. K. Jayachandraiah, Mr. D. Srinivasa Murthy, Mr. G. Ramanaiyah, Mr. T. Edukondalu, Mr. D. Bhaskar, Mr. B. Penchalnarasa Reddy, Mr. A. Hariprasad, Mr. K. Raghavendra Naidu, Mr. M. Ravikanth, Mr. A. Chandrasekhar and Mr. T. Udaya Kumar and others who helped me in completion of work. I express my heartfelt gratitude to Prof. R.A. Jayantha for his encouragement and help in my research endeavour.

It gives me a great pleasure to acknowledge my indebtedness to Smt. D. Suguna (W/o Prof. D. Himachalam) and other family members for their moral support.

Finally, I express my heartfelt thanks to my Parents Sri C. Venkata Raju and Smt. C. Mangamma, uncle Ch. Subramanyam, my wife Smt. Sujatha and children who have always stood by me in my academic pursuits and condoned generously my neglect, though unintended, of my familial obligations, because of my involvement in my research work.
