ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I bow in reverence to Almighty ALLAH whose gracious blessings gave me the required devotion for the completion of this work.

I express my deep sense of gratitude to my research supervisor Dr. M. Farooq Azam, Senior Nematologist, Department of Botany, AMU, Aligarh, whose skillful guidance, fervent supervision, and constant encouragement at all stages has been instrumental towards the completion of this task.

It gives me immense pleasure to thank Prof. Wazahat Hussain, Chairman, and Prof. A. K. M. Ghousa, Ex-Chairman, Deptt. of Botany, for providing all necessary laboratory and library facilities.

I am also happy to acknowledge the many helpful discussions held with Emeritus Prof. Abrar Mustafa Khan, the father of Indian Nematology, who kept the momentum of research going on in this department. I am greatly indebted to him for his useful criticism and helpful suggestions throughout the course.

I am genuinely owing gratitude to my local guardians Dr. S. M. Imran and Dr. Mrs. Rais Fatima for their encouragement and boundless generosity throughout the period of my stay at AMU, Aligarh.

While preparing the work I had the privilege of receiving unselfish and friendly help from two senior colleagues of mine, Mr. M. Imran Khan and Dr. M. Fazal by discussing scientific problems. I extend my special thanks to them for their constant help and most valuable assistance throughout the preparation of this manuscript. Thanks are also due to Dr. T. A. Khan and Dr. M. A. Siddiqui for their valuable suggestions.

I place on record my sincere appreciation to my research colleagues and friends Dr. Farooq A. Lone, Dr. S. I. Husain, Dr. A. Khawaja, M/s A. H. Wani, Baheed S., M. A. Mantoo, M. A. Raza, A. Majid Qazi, Mohiuddin Bhat, M. Yousuf, Mushtaq Ahmad, Taulat, Shahid, Iqbal and Mrs. R. A. Shah for their cherished cooperation, moral support and helpful comments throughout the course.

My sincere thanks should also be extended to Peerzada Sharifuddin and G. A. Subramanian for their assistance in the statistical analysis. Likewise I am also thankful to M/s S. A. Khan and A. H. Saleem for their conscientious efforts in typing the manuscript.

The financial assistance rendered by University in the form of JRF/SRF is also gratefully acknowledged.

Lastly I pay tribute to my beloved parents, grandfather, grandmother, sisters, brother, maternal and paternal uncles for their understanding and tremendous support during the difficult periods of last several years. Their confidence in my work was a constant stimulus. Well deserved appreciation goes to G. R. Wani (Bhaijan) for his constant motivation for higher studies.
