Acknowledgements

First and foremost I would like to bow down my head in front of ALMIGHTY the most beneficent, the merciful for making this task reach its completion.

It gives me boundless pleasure to express my deep sense of obligation and sincere thanks to my research supervisor, Prof. M. Shakir for his unwavering support, his academic guidance, sustained interest, stimulating discussions and incisive contributions during research. Scientific discussions held with him and his many constructive comments throughout my research always made my work easier. His unquenchable curiosity and love for the subject are probably the most valuable lessons I have learned from this Ph.D, and his continual support and encouragement have kept me going over the last few years. My special thanks to Mrs. Nafees Jahan for her caring attitude and her supportive nature.

I express my sincere thanks to Prof. Kabir-u-din, who as chairman of the department provided various research facilities.

Sincere thanks are due to my teachers especially Dr. T. A. Khan and Dr. Rafi-u-din for their guidance and help at all times.

Help provided by the non-teaching staff of this department especially Mr. Rafaqat, Mr. Rashid, Mr. Qadeer and Mrs. Tasleem are gratefully acknowledged.

I take this opportunity to express my special thanks to Dr. Mohammad Yamin Siddiqui, King Saud University, Kingdom of Saudi Arabia for providing various analyses facilities. I am also thankful to Dr. Ajax Mohammad, Germany for his help in getting various physico-chemical data. Prof. R. J. Singh, Department of Physics, A.M.U., is also acknowledged for getting an EPR data.

Dr. Shadab, Dr. Mansoob, Dr. Shamsu and Mr. Aleem are acknowledged for their help and guidance.

I would like to thank my lab colleagues Dr. Nishat, Ms. Shabana, Ms. Shama, Ms. Poonam, Mr. Sauban, Ms. Shakira, Ms. Fatima, Ms. Sultana and Mr. Azam for their cooperation during my entire research period.

Financial assistance provided by UGC during this work is highly acknowledged.

I would like to thank all my friends especially Mr. Maaz-Bin-Khalid, Mr. Khalid Saifullah, Mr. Tariq, Dr. Malik, Ms. Nuzbat, Dr. Mustakhsbira, Ms. Shazia, Dr. Smita, Ms. Gulnaz, Dr. Sana, Dr. Niharika, Dr. Pinki and Ms. Salma Siddiqui for their help, support and good wishes throughout this period.

My special thanks to my friends Ms. Riffat Anjum Fatima and Mr. Yasser Azim. Their help, support and encouragement were always there whenever I needed them the most. They were always there to make me smile through the worst of times. Ms. Riffat Anjum is also thanked for her help in carrying out the biological studies.

My sincere thanks to Dr. Altaf for his brotherly affection, his care and support. He was always there to cheer me up and encourage me.

Mr. Malik Hashmi, Department of Computer Sciences, A.M.U., is acknowledged for his helping attitude throughout the compilation of this thesis.

Mr. Naim of Campus Computers is acknowledged for his excellent contribution to the layout of the thesis and compilation.

My heartfelt thanks to all my relatives and my well-wishers especially my Khala for her good wishes and prayers.

My present status in life, this PhD included, is the result of extraordinary will, efforts and sacrifice of my parents. I am unable to find words to express my gratitude and indebtedness to them, for their keen interest in my academic pursuits, for their faith and their unabounded love. The blessings of my parents have always maintained my enthusiasm throughout my work. I wish them all happiness. It is indeed a privilege to put on my record, the constant encouragement, inspiration and support I received from my sister Dr. Zabida and my brother-in-law Dr. Asif. They have inspired me to always reach for higher horizons. Many thanks to Ms. Nahida who has buffered my ups and downs with unquestioning support. My youngest sister Ms. Shayista is thanked for her continuous love and emotional support. I thank GOD for blessing me with such an understanding and supportive family.

Years spent in Aligarh Muslim University will be cherished. Thankyou Aligarh for showing me the way and lighting the lamp of knowledge in my path.

Thanks to all of you, and with my open heart I pray GOD BLESS YOU ALL.
