In the Name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful

This research thesis bears the imprint of a range of people who supported me in this endeavour. The number of people who helped me is truly large.

I take this opportunity to express my deep sense of gratitude to Ustad-i-muhtaram, Dr. Parvaiz Talib, for his guidance and advice. I would like to thank him for introducing me to a fascinating area of human behaviour in organisations: Organisational Role Stress. His constant encouragement and support has sustained my interest in research. The thesis has immensely benefited from his learned comments during the course of our discussions. He showed remarkable patience to my procrastinations and vacillations.

The study covered a sample of Information Technology professionals from National Capital Region. There are a number of people in industry who helped me in data collection and in arranging interviews with IT professionals. For this I am specially thankful to Mr. Afzal Usmani (Senior Design Engineer, STI Microsystems), Mr. Samir Yusuf Ansari (Software Engineer, IGT Solutions), Mr. Mohammed Abdul Qadeer (Project Engineer, Asia Pacific Professional Services, Cisco Systems), Mr. Haris Bin Murshid (Business Development Manager, HDFC Standard Life Insurance Company Limited), Mr. Abdullah Aziz (Program Executive, U. S. Operations, Parsec Technologies Ltd.).

I would like to thank Prof. S. M. Ozair, (Dean & Chairman). His elderly presence has always been a source of inspiration and encouragement. Thanks are also due to Prof. Kaleem Mohd. Khan. His presence in the department was always a source of strength. I take this opportunity to thanks other teachers of the department who were always ready to help. Their knowledgeable advice and suggestions have gone a long way in making this research a possibility.

I must thank my friends M/s Abdul Quadir, Miraj Salim, Faisal Zia Siddiqui, Sultan Ahmad, Syed Mohammad Shamsuzzaman, Rashid Usman Ansari and Aamir Ali for providing the necessary motivation and support. I owe gratitude to my friends, Syed Raheel Ahmad and Imran Azad for meticulously proofreading the manuscript and removing the discrepancies. Their computer prowess helped me immensely in this research. I specifically acknowledge their contribution in this respect. I am also indebted to Mr. Daud Salim Faruquie. His advice and suggestions regarding statistics were most valuable.

Acknowledgement is also due to the librarians and staff of the Maulana Azad Library (Aligarh Muslim University), Tata Institute of Social Sciences (TISS, Mumbai), and International Islamic University (Selangor, Malaysia) for their help in collection of material. I must also thank the staff of Seminar
Library of Department of Business Administration (Aligarh Muslim University), Seminar Library of Department of Psychology (Aligarh Muslim University) for their kind cooperation.

Lastly I would like to thank my family for keeping my moral high in this arduous task. Without their encouragement and support this research would not have been possible.

Despite the support of so many persons, the flaws and inconsistencies are due to my own frailties.
