Acknowledgement

Expressing emotions and gratitude on paper is indeed a difficult task. Words perhaps would fail to express my deep sense of gratitude to my esteemed guide and true mentor Prof. Samiullah, Chairman, Department of Botany, Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh. It is quite difficult to perceive ever having completed this arduous task but for his love, affection and bold steps which have really changed prospects of my life. It is indeed a proud privilege of having an opportunity of working under such a vivacious veteran and pleasant personality who truly being a beacon of knowledge has lightened my task and made it delightful.

I am extremely obliged to Dr. Athar Ali Khan my co-supervisor who guided me on the path, which was really a difficult one. He took charge when I lost most of my hopes on account of sad demise of my late Supervisor Prof. M. Mashkoor Alam. May his soul rest in peace. His perpetual, hardcore guidelines, the spirit of getting best out of me and letting no stone unturned for any aspect of research has put me to this final task.

I am deeply indebted to Prof. Abida Malik, Chairman department of Microbiology, for allowing me to learn microbiological techniques in her department. She very kindly provided me the authentic cultures of bacteria used in this study. Thanks are also due to Dr. Ashish department of Microbiology for his sincere and critical suggestions. Thanks are also due to Prof. Nizam Khan, Department of Chemistry, under whose guidance I learned the techniques of plant extraction.

I am thankful to Dr. Mrs. Tauseer Bano, Department of Gynecology & Obstetrics for her valuable advice.
I am also obliged to Prof. M. Ishrat Husain Khan, for his knowledgeable guidance whenever it was needed. I am also thankful to Prof. Ainul Haq Khan for his valuable suggestions.

Thanks to Quamar, Tariq, Fayaz and all my well wishers for helping me during my research and providing friendly environment.

I pay gratitude to my grandpa Babu and Naani for love and fondness, caring and affection from Zeenat Khala, Farha Khala. Thanks are also to Mamu Hilal for suggesting me to proceed for research. I gratefully acknowledge Rizwan for typing out the manuscript with a professional skill.

Last, but not the least I gratefully acknowledge my Ammi and Baujee for providing flame of learning in me and to whose affections encouragement, sacrificial devotions I ascribe all my success.
