ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The depth of my sense of gratitude, the magnitude of my respectfulness and the sincerity of my internal feelings towards the great professor in him are beyond expression. For the last five years, Dr. Rashid Ali, my reverend guide, has been a constant source of inspiration and encouragement for me. His philosophy of perseverance and exacting perfection, dedication and dynamism have left an indelible mark on me. Through his own conduct he has taught me to observe critically and objectively, practise humility and sincerity. No adjective can perhaps do the justice with the evaluation of his contribution to my research career.

I express my thanks to Professor. A. Salahuddin, Chairman, Department of Biochemistry, J.N.M.C. for providing all the necessary facilities.

Not less grateful and thankful I am to my respected teachers Dr. Masood. A. Siddiqui, Dr. M. Abul Qasim, Dr. Asif Ali, Dr. M.U. Siddiqui and Dr. Khushaar Salman for their ideal suggestions and encouragement.
