Acknowledgements

I always considered it trite and over-fulsome of thesis authors to list a full set of people who were invaluable always, that is, until I wrote a thesis and realised just how deeply I am in debt to the people listed below.

It is difficult to overstate my gratitude to my supervisor, Dr. Bilqees Bano. Her enthusiasm, inspiration and great efforts to explain things clearly and simply, helped in developing interest in this subject. Throughout my research period she extended encouragement, sound and valuable advice, illuminating discussions, guidance and insightful comments.

I would like to express my deep gratitude to my chairman, Prof. Masood Ahmad for providing unparallel research environment. For endless patience and goodwill, I acknowledge all my teachers in particular who found time to talk through my ideas with great benefit to my clarity of mind.

I am indebted to Prof. T.P. Singh (AIIMS, New Delhi) and Dr. Faizan Ahmad (AMU, New Delhi) for their help and co-operation extended to me.

The University Grants Commission is thankfully acknowledged for providing financial assistance as NET-Junior Research Fellowship and AMU for the Departmental Fellowship.

My heartfelt thanks to Atia Apa, Mansour Bhai and Athar Bhai for their ready co-operation and guidance. My lab mates Sabiha Apa, Pawan, Arshi, Kashif, Suhail, Rana, Sonali, Naghma, Kahkashan, Riffat, Irjana, Asfar, Yasha, Shoukat, Shamila, Jouzia and Sandeep deserve a word of appreciation for their nice company. I owe an expression of thanks to Amjad and Kaleem. Sonish deserves deep appreciation for her cordial assistance in some difficult tasks. I am especially grateful to Shahid for being a wonderful lab colleague with whom I could discuss my findings and test their relevance. I am indebted to Samina Apa and Sheema for providing a stimulating and congenial environment which is unforgettable.

Aina, a friend, has been a driving force behind this research and never failing to boost my morale. She went one step further in confirming my determination and encouraging me to pursue what, in times of difficulty seemed an impossible pursuit.

I am also thankful to all member of the non-teaching staff of the department including Hilal Bhai for providing needful assistance in different ways. My sincere regards are due to Mr. Saleemuddin A. Khan for excellent cartography, Mr. Mujtaba Ahmad for expert photography, Mr. Md. Omar and Mr. Mazhar for technical assistance.

Help and the facilities by Competent Xerox Centre, especially Zaheer Ahmad for expert processing of the manuscript deserves a word of praise.

I am at dearth of words to express my heartfelt gratitude to my parents, Faraz, Almas, Saher, Ikram, Akbar, Saij, Adeel and his parents who have been patient, supportive and caring. This thesis is indeed a realization of their dreams.

I end these dry words of appreciation with a deep sense of gratitude and obligation and with a hope to reciprocate in due course.
