ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I have great pleasure to express my sincere and heartfelt gratitude to my supervisor, Dr. Rajendra Prasad, Professor, Department of Applied Physics, Z.H. College of Engineering & Technology, Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh, India, for his efficient guidance, encouragement and attention at every stage of my research work only by which I could complete this study.

I am highly indebted to Prof. R.K. Tyagi for the constant encouragement he extended to me.

I would like to extend my thankfulness to Prof. D.S. Srivastava, Chairman, Department of Applied Physics, for providing me all the facilities available in the department.

I am also extremely indebted to my colleagues Dr. P.J. Jojo, Mr. A. Rawat and Mr. Ajay Kumar Singh and other friends for all the helps during the course of this study. Thanks are also due to Dr. A.J. Khan for useful discussions. Sincere thanks are also due to Miss. Niswan Ali, Department of Applied Mathematics for introducing me the computer graphics and word processing and to Mr. Mohd. Rafique, S.T.A., Department of Applied Physics for helping in tracing the figures. I thankfully acknowledge Mr. H.K. Sharma's helping in the fast and careful typing of the thesis.
I acknowledge with thanks the co-operation extended to me by all the members of the teaching and non-teaching staff of the department.

Sincere thanks are also due to Dr. J. Vetter and Dr. R. Spohr of GSI Darmstadt, Germany and the staff of the Variable Energy Cyclotron Centre, Calcutta, India for providing the irradiation facilities. I will be failing in my duty if I do not express my gratefulness to Dr. K.K. Dwivedi, Department of Chemistry, North-Eastern Hill University, Shillong for providing the computer program 'RANGE'.

Last but not least, I would like to express my wholehearted gratitude to my father and family members for their blessings, inspiration and all other supports.

Financial assistances from the Council for Scientific and Industrial Research, New Delhi and Board of Research in Nuclear Science, Department of Atomic Energy, Bombay are most thankfully acknowledged.
