CONTENTS

Preface

Introduction

Chapter I

The emergence of the religion of Islam as a socio-political power.

A survey of the socio-political conditions upto Abbasid period.

Chapter II

Development of the Arabic prose through ages.

(a) The pre-Islamic Arabic Prose.

(b) Arabic prose during the Islamic period - The period of the prophet (PBUH) and the first four pious caliphs.

(c) Development of Arabic prose during the Umayyad period.

Chapter III

The Abbasid Rule

(a) The period of expansion of knowledge and the Graeco-Arabic Translation Activity.

(b) Some of the Sciences that flourished during the Abbasid period.

(c) Islamic Sciences during the Abbasid period.

Chapter IV

Contribution of the early Abbasid period to the Arabic Literary prose.

(a) The Arts of speaking (Al Khitabat)
Chapter V

Some of the prominent writers of the Arabic Literary Prose during the early Abbasid period (132 A.H. to 300 A.H.)

1. Ibn Al-Muqaffa
2. Ibn Qutaibah
3. Sahl bin Harun
4. Al-Fadl bin Sahl
5. Al-Jahiz
6. Amar bin Masada
7. Ahmad bin Yusuf

Appendix

Bibliography