ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Financial assistance to this Diachronic study of the Syntactic Patterns of Malayalam is granted by the University of Kerala. I am highly indebted to this great institution. This work was carried out at the Department of Linguistics, University of Kerala. Prof. V. R. Prabodhachandran Nayar, Head of the Department provided me all the facilities available there. To him sincere thanks is acknowledged.

Dr. B. Sreedevi, Reader in Linguistics, Department of English, University of Calicut was a profound source of inspiration in my academic pursuit. Her sincere encouragement and constant compulsion enabled me to fulfill this study. I am greatly indebted to my supervising teacher Dr. B. Sreedevi for all the love and care that she endowed upon me. My sincere gratitude is due to her forever.

Dr. T. B. Venugopala Panicker, Department of Malayalam, University of Calicut; Dr. N. Mukundan, Department of Malayalam, Dr. A. P. Andrews kutty and Dr. B. Gopinathan Nair of the Department of Linguistics, University of Kerala; Prof. V. Chandrasekharan Pillai and Prof. P. V. Velayudhan Pillai provided me very useful suggestions and recommendations during the various stages of the research. I am expressing my sincere thanks to all of them.

Faculty members and staff of the Department of Linguistics and my friends helped me very much in this study. Due acknowledgement is expressed to all of them. Thanks.

S. KUNJAMMA