ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This dissertation would not have been possible without the guidance and the help of several individuals who in one way or another contributed and extended their valuable assistance in the preparation and completion of this study. First and foremost, my utmost gratitude to my supervisor Dr. Brajesh Sawhney, Professor, Department of English, Kurukshetra University, Kurukshetra for his kind supervision, advice, and guidance from the very early stage of this research to its end. Above all, he provided me unflinching encouragement and support in various ways without which it would have been impossible for me to give shape to my ideas.

I am thankful to the indispensable library facilities of The American Center, New Delhi, Kurukshetra University, Kurukshetra, Panjab University, Chandigarh as well as the T. S. Central State Library, Chandigarh.

Where would I be without my family and friends? My parents, sister and sons, Pranjal and Pranav deserve special mention for their inseparable support, affection, prayers and patience. Words fail me to express my appreciation to my better half, Sarika, whose dedication, love and persistent confidence in me, provided me strength all through the passage of my research work.

Last but by no means least, and the one above all of us, I thank the omnipresent God, for answering my prayers, for giving me the strength to accomplish this challenging task.
