ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am greatly indebted to Dr. A.V.S. Murthy, Senior Scientist and Head, Fishery Environment Management Division, CMFRI, Cochin under whose guidance and direction this work has been carried out.

I thank the Government of India, Ministry of Agriculture (Dept. of Agriculture and Co-operation) for granting me necessary permission to undertake the research work as a part-time Scholar of the University of Cochin, utilising the facilities available in the erstwhile UNDP/FAO Pelagic Fishery Project, Cochin.

I wish to acknowledge my sincere thanks to prof. P.C. George and Dr. T.A. Mammen former Joint Commissioners (Fisheries) in the Ministry of Agriculture, Government of India and Dr. P.V. Dehadrai, Fisheries Development Commissioner to Government of India for their keen interest in the present study.

I wish to express my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. M.S. Prabhu, former Director, erstwhile UNDP/FAO Pelagic Fishery Project, Cochin, Mr. W.R. Murdoch, Project Manager, erstwhile UNDP/FAO Pelagic Fishery Project, Cochin, Shri. D.A.S. Gnanadoss, former Director CIFNET, Cochin, Shri. M. Swaminath, present Director, CIFNET, Cochin, Shri. R. Satiarajan, Director, Integrated Fisheries Project, Cochin, Dr. E.G. Silas, Director, CMFRI, Cochin and Dr. D. Srinivasan, Director, NPOL, Cochin for their keen interest in this work.
My thanks are due to my former colleagues Dr. K.C. George, Shri. K. Vijayarajan and Shri. A. Mandakumar for their help and suggestions and to Capt. Hamza, Capt. P. M. Sadamandan and Capt. M. H. Koya and the crew of the project vessels "R.V. Rastrelliger" and "R.V. Sardinella" for their help during the fieldtrips.

My thanks are also due to Dr. J. W. Ramster, Dr. R. R. Dickson and Mr. D. G. Hughes, Scientists, MAFF Fisheries Laboratory, Lowestoft, England for the very useful discussions I had with them on topics connected with the process of upwelling during my visit to the laboratory in 1979 under an FAO study tour fellowship programme.

I would like to express my deep felt appreciation to my wife, Smt. Jalaja for her utmost care to provide a congenial atmosphere at home day in and day out which helped me to bring out the thesis in its present form.

My sincere thanks are due to Shri. M. S. Nair for the excellent Stenography work.
