ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Not by might nor by power but by the spirit of the Lord Almighty. It is because of the sheer grace of the Lord Jesus Christ that I was able to complete this work. His grace was sufficient for me, for his power was made perfect in my weakness.

I owe a special debt of gratitude to the Neyveli Lignite Corporation Ltd. for having permitted me to collect necessary primary data from Top and Middle level executives.

I take this opportunity to express my gratitude to Dr. V. Manickavasagam, Professor of Corporate Secretaryship, Alagappa University, Karaikudi, for his scholarly research guidance and supervision. His unflinching encouragement was instrumental in completing this research work.

I take this opportunity to express my gratitude to Dr. P. Murugesan, Principal, Sankara Institute of Management Sciences, Coimbatore-35, whose encouragement was mainly responsible for the successful completion of my research.
I am indebted to Dr. M. Jeyakumar, M.Sc., M.A., M.Phil., PGDPM, Ph.D., Associate Professor and Head, Post Graduate and Research Department of Economics, Saraswathi Narayanan College, Madurai – 625 022. whose assiduous nurturing of appropriate statistical tools in analysis was of great help to my work.

My sincere thanks are also due to Mr. Josephraj, Accountant, NLC for assisting me in several ways during the period of data collection.

Special thanks are also due to Dr. M. R. Chandran and Dr. G. Kalaivanan for going through the full text of an earlier version of this thesis.

I thank my wife Dr. J. Joselene Manora, Professor of Mathematics and my sons K. Joel Gabriel and K. Jerrel Gabriel for graciously putting up with my prolonged research pre-occupation.

I wish to express my appreciation to M/s. Lavanya Systems, Madurai-3 for laser type setting and printing of this thesis.

V. KAMARASAN