Dedicated

to

With respect to the medium of my worldly manifestation and the foundations of my value system,

My eternal and inspirational grand parents

Yemmanuru Subbamma
&
Yemmanuru Subbaiah
ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Look to this day!
For it is life, the very life of life,
in its brief course
Lie all the verities and realities of your existence:

The bliss of growth,
the glory of action,
the splendor of beauty,
for yesterday is but a dream
And tomorrow only a vision,
But today well lived makes every yesterday
a dream of happiness
and every tomorrow a vision of hope.

Kalidasa (2500 BC Sanskrit)

This thesis would not have seen the day of fruition without the direct and indirect support and cooperation of many individuals whom I would like acknowledge their valuable intellectual contributions. Any words my mine will not acknowledge my inner heartfelt gratitude until unless know the feelings of mine as manifestation.

The writing of this dissertation has been one of the most significant academic challenges I have ever had to face. Without the support, patience and guidance of the following people, this study would not have been completed. It is to them that I owe my deepest gratitude.

Dr. V. Manickavasagam, the intellectual guru who undertook to act as my supervisor despite his many other academic and professional commitments. His wisdom, knowledge and commitment to the highest standards inspired and motivated me.

The Vice chancellor and staff of Alagappa University for giving me this opportunity to do research and by providing infrastructure needed for successful completion of this work.

My friends and Credit Managers of various banks who inspired my final effort despite the enormous work pressures they were facing together.
All the managers who participated in this research project with interest and enthusiasm.

I would like to acknowledge the contribution of all my present and former students. It is their inquisitiveness shown in the form of their incisive and intriguing questions enabled us to identify the areas that needed a special emphasis and guided me to present this thesis.

Anantha Narayana Gumparthi, my inspiration, without who this effort would have been worth nothing. Your love, support and constant patience have taught me so much about sacrifice, discipline and compromise – even if there were times when you said “I told you so”.

Nagalakshumma and Chakrapani my parents, who have always supported, encouraged and believed in me, in all my endeavours and who so lovingly and unselfishly cared for my progress all the time.

Gumparthi family members for their constant support and motivation throughout my career.

Vakula Devi & Rajeswara Murthy, my Mother-in-law and Father-in-law: for all your encouragement and profound understanding of intensions and motives in my life.

Last but not least, with great love and affection, for the sacrifice of their invaluable personal time they are entitled to, providing all encouragement and support and bearing with me, my dear wife Bhargavi and my lovely son Venkat Asish Chakrapani.