ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It is my pleasant duty to thank a number of people who helped me directly or indirectly in the completion of this research work. I take this opportunity to express my sense of gratitude to all of them.

I must acknowledge my debt to Tilak Maharashtra Vidhyapeeth and my History Department for this great opportunity to do my research work.

I am grateful to my Research Guide Dr. Padmaja Patil, Associate Professor, Department of History, Shivaji University, Kolhapur, who has been a constant source of inspiration for the intellectual stimulation and guidance, the thesis get the shape it has.

I be in debt of gratitude to all the officers of the management of Seventh Day Adventist at Pune head office, who provided me authentic information, data required and rendered precious suggestions that are necessary in my venture. Also I vow my gratitude to my Principal and Treasurer Shri. S. M. Gaikwad and Mr. Ramesh Anumolu respectively for all their moral support and inspiration at all times. My heart felt gratitude to all the principals of the Seventh Day Adventist Schools for extending data and support for this thesis.

I must acknowledge my debt to Dr. R Narayana, Principal of Shahaji Law College, Kolhapur for guiding me form day one to the lost of this day. Also to Prof .T.V.G Sharma, Reader (SIBER), Dr. A.M Sutar, Retired Professor, Shivaji University, Kolhapur and many who contributed towards the progress of this thesis.

The present thesis got its shape because of my friend Miss. Ashwini Hiremath for her splendid typing and support. I am grateful to her for all her sacrificial support. With all the limitations, she took up the challenge of typing and moral support through out my research study. Also my friends Parveen and Rasika who helped. I am also thankful to Mr. Naveen Kumar Vipparthi who had formatted the thesis and gave final finishing.

Lastly, I would like to thank my parents and my brother for all their support. Today I am facing the world challenges; it’s because of their support. I also vow my regards to my wife and son for all the help and cooperation.

Kolhapur.                                                Mr. V. Vara Prasad Rao
November, 2011.                                          Research Student