ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I should like to express my gratitude to the farmers, officers of various Govt. offices, officials of all the Co-operative and Commercial banks, particularly, the officers of the Bilaspur-Raipur Regional Rural Bank, and the Lead District Office of State Bank of India, Bilaspur (M.P.), who were only too willing to provide the necessary information involved in the study. Although it is not possible to mention them individually for reasons of space, the present study owes a lot to their courtesy.

I am thankful to the librarians and the library-staff of the libraries of Vikram University, Ujjain (M.P.), Punjab Rao Krishi Vidya-Peeth, Akola (Maharashtra), Nagpur University, Nagpur (Maharashtra), Ravishankar University, Raipur, (M.P.), its study Centre, at Bilaspur (M.P.), and, our own college for helping me locate the material required for the study.

I am very much beholden to the authorities of our college; particularly the former Chairman, late Shri D.P. Dubey, and our Principal Dr. D.P. Shukla, for the permission to undertake the study, as well as, for constant help and encouragement.

I am grateful to Dr. S.C. Srivastava, for agreeing to supervise the study and providing the much needed support of his scholarship. I am also thankful to my colleagues in the Dept. of Economics for their co-operation.
My husband, Mr. S.K. Tamaskar, was a great help in data-collection and my nephews, S. Moharir, M.Sc., and H. Moharir, an engineering student, also helped me.

Mrs. S. Nayak, Head, Dept. of History in our college and a close friend, always encouraged me with her affectionately rendered advice, whenever I needed it most.

Dr. A.K. Khare, Head, Dept. of English in our college provided constant moral support.

My father, Shri V.W. Samudra, and my mother, have always been a source of inspiration to me and in a way, this study is a flowering of the nurture I had in their care. It would have given joy to one, who, alas! is now no more—my father-in-law, late Shri K.D. Tamaskar.

Lastly, I must express my appreciation of the tracings done by Mr. Kulkarni, and the hard and sincere work done by Mr. R.N. Pharamthok in preparing the typescript.

BILASPUR, (M.P.)

(MRS. VIDYA TAMASKAR)
