ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

“On the recollection of so many great favours and blessings.
I now, with a high sense of gratitude, record my sincere thanks to the Almighty, the Creator and Preserver.”

It may be acknowledged that a study of the research work cannot be completed without the constant help and encouragement from various people to whom I owe a sincere debt of gratitude. First and foremost, with great pleasure and reverence, I express my deep sense of gratitude to my supervisor Dr. Sushama Sharma, Professor, Department of Education, Kurukshetra University, Kurukshetra for her valuable guidance. Her indefatigable fact finding zeal was a source of constant inspiration. In fact, but for her painstaking supervision and inspiring discussion this thesis would have never attained this stage. It has been indeed an extreme privilege and one of the most rewarding experience of life to have been associated with a persons of her caliber.

My sincere thanks are also due to Dr. Puran Singh, Chairman, Department of Education, Kurukshetra University, Kurukshetra for their constant unfailing interest in monitoring the progress of my study. They saved me from many technical hassles by his timely advice.

This acknowledgement would be incomplete without grateful mention of 300 locomotor, 300 hearing impaired and 300 able-bodied school-going children, who volunteered to be the subjects for the study and shared their precious time and cooperated with me. I am highly thankful to the librarians of various libraries viz. Jawaharlal Nehru Library, Kurukshetra University Library, NCERT Library and NUEPA Library for their permission and cooperation to refer the related study materials and tests required to conduct this study.

It is a unique privilege to express my veneration to my parents and other family members who deserve more than a written acknowledgment throughout the process of work and who bestowed their pious blessing, incessant encouragement and financial support for my higher academic pursuits.

Last but not the least, I must confess that the completion of this work and even carrying out of this work would have been impossible without the encouragement, moral support and cooperation by my wife Mrs. Jyoti, my little children Vanshika and Gatik.

Above all, I thank almighty God, for showering his blessings upon me.
