CONTENTS.

Preface. i-xvi

Introduction. 1-33

1. Rival Political Factions. 2. Challenge to the Empire. 3. Marathas. 4. Repression and Reconciliation of Rajput Rajas. 5. The Jats. 6. The Bundelas. 7.
   Suppression of the Sikhs. 8. Deposition of Farrukh-Siyar.

Chapter I. Accession and Early Years. 34-63

1. Early Life. 2. Accession. 3. His Relations with the Saiyid brothers. 4. Compromise with Raja Jai Singh. 5. Revolt of Raja Chabella Ram and Peace made with Girdhar Bahadur. 6. Conflict between Nizamul
   Mulk and Saiyid brothers. 7. The Revolt of Nizamul
   Mulk. 8. Nizamul Mulk's victory over Dilawar Ali

Chapter II. The Fall of the Saiyid Brothers. 64-91.

1. Assassination of Husain Ali Khan. 2. Battle of Hasanpur. 3. The Character of the Saiyid brothers.
   4. The Wizarat of Muhammad Amin Khan.

Chapter III. The Wizarat of Nizamul Mulk. 1721-1724. 92-111.

1. Opposition of Kokiji to his Reforms.

Chapter IV. Nizamul Mulk in the Deccan. 1724-1732. 112-135.

1. Nizamul Mulk's victory over Mubariz Khan. 2.
   His interference in the affairs of Gujrat.
3. His secret Pact with the Peshwa.

Chapter V.
Expansion of Maratha Power.

Chapter VI.
Rajputana, Rohilkhand and the Punjab.
1. The Revolt of Raja Ajit Singh. 2. Rise of Raja Jai Singh. 3. His Relations with the Marathas. 4. Fails to create unity among Rajput Chiefs. 5. Rohilkhand. 6. Punjab.

Chapter VII.
Foreign Invasions.

Chapter VIII.
Administration.
1. Revenue Administration. 2. Jagir System. 3. Trade and Industries. 4. The Army - Character and weapons and Methods of war.

Chapter IX.
Society and Culture.
19. Architecture.

Chapter X.

Character and estimate of Muhammad Shah.

Appendix - Bibliography.