Acknowledgements

I express my intense gratitude and profound indebtedness to my revered guide and supervisor, Prof. Pramod Tandon, Plant Biotechnology Laboratory, Department of Botany, North-Eastern Hill University, for his adroit and erudite guidance, unwavering enthusiasm and the much exigent critical comment of his to drafting the manuscript. I owe a lot to him for being instrumental in introducing me to the realm of conifer somatic embryogenesis.

I register my gratefulness to Prof. A. K. Mishra, Head, Department of Botany, N. E. H. U., Shillong, for his kind permission to avail of the laboratory facilities.

I am grateful to (Late) Prof. Y. S. Chauhan, Prof. H. N. Pandey former Heads, of the Department of Botany, N. E. H. U. for providing me with the required facilities in the laboratory.

I am thankful to Prof. R. R. Mishra and Prof. R. S. Tripathi for their valuable suggestions and advice.

I owe my sincere gratitude and appreciation to Dr. Suman Kumaria Khatri, Lecturer, Department of Botany, N. E. H. U. for her advice and benign help.

I sincerely remain obliged to my lab-mates Ms. Sanghamitra Purkayastha, Dr. Varginia Kalita, Dr. Chitta Ranjan Deb for their help and cooperation.

I also remain obliged to my other lab-mates Dr. R. B. Malabadi, Ms. Radha Chhetri, Mrs. Meera Chetri Das, Mr. Farooq and our Lab. Assitant Mr. T. B. Tamang for their whole-hearted cooperation. I express my gratefulness to Mrs. S. Purkayastha for her encouragement during my research period.
Words are mere insufficient to acknowledge the selfless help and personal involvement of my close friends Dr. Babu John, Mr. Nripemo Odyuo, Dr. Sanjiban Goswami, Dr. Subhasish Das Gupta, and Dr. Gopa Sarma in my work.

My heartfelt thanks are due to all my friends- Dr. Vineeta Chuhan, Ms. Sangeeta Bharali, Dr. Atanu Bhattacharjee, Ms. Carina Goswami, Ms. Larisha and Mr. Amit Biswas for their cooperation and kind help.

I also thank the photographers Mr. B. Das & Mr. Kumar, the office staff of Botany Department and the library staff of N. E. H. U. for their kind help during the study period.

Last but not the least, I remain ever grateful to my little beloved nephew Master Arindam Choudhury for his constant love and affection, revered parents for their benison, brothers and sisters-in-law for their persevering and unsparing support and benignity during the execution of the study.
