ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am heartily indebted to Dr. M. Shahid Siddiqui, who has supervised the entire project right from its beginning. It is due to his able and intellectual guidance, keen efforts, constant encouragement and inhesitant help, that the work could be completed.

Special appreciation is extended to Prof. M. H. Khan, Chairman, Department of Zoology, Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh and Prof. A. H. Siddiqui for providing adequate research facilities.

I am grateful to Dr. Miss Arlene Jones and Dr. L. F. Khalil of the Commonwealth Institute of Parasitology, St. Albans, England; Dr. D. S. Brown of British Museum, Dr. M. U. Farooqi and Dr. W. A. Mirzami of the Department of Zoology, A.M.U., Aligarh and Dr. Wazahat Husain of Botany Department for the identification of Research material.

My grateful thanks are due to my colleague and friend, Dr. Rashid Farooq for the cartographic work and for his wholehearted and generous assistance throughout the course of the work.

I also feel it my duty to thank Meteorological Section of the Department of Physics, A.M.U., Aligarh for providing adequate rainfall data during the tenure of the research.

It would be unjust not to express the sincere cooperation extended by my colleagues, M/S Mohd. Abbas, Mohd.
Shakil, Shakil Anwar, Faroogh Khumar and Asif Wasim.

I should also express my gratefulness to my close friends, M/S Mohd. Masood Ali Khan and Taqi Uddin along with my sincere room partners.

I am thankful to Mr. Ziaul Hasan for typing this thesis with care and patience.

Thanks are also due to the Council of Scientific and Industrial Research for the award of Senior Research Fellowship to carry out the investigations.

Finally, I wish to record my sincerest gratitude to my parents who are a constant source of inspiration for me.
