Acknowledgement

I would like to express my deep sense of gratitude to my research guide Dr. J.N. Vishwakarma, Head, Organic Research Lab., Department of Chemistry, St Anthony’s College Shillong, who has been my greatest source of inspiration and without whose encouragement, interest and guidance this research work would not have been possible.

It is a great privilege to express my sincere gratitude to Dr R.L. Nongkhlaw, my supervisor, for his interest and valuable suggestions, without which this work could not have seen the light of the day. I also thank Dr E. Karim for his help and encouragement. Thanks are also due to Dr. M.A. Laskar for his constant encouragement.

The research work described in this thesis was carried out in the Organic Research Lab., Department of chemistry, St Anthony’s College, Shillong. It is indeed a great privilege to express my heartfelt thanks to Rev. Fr. Iaonnis Warpakma, SDB, Principal, St Anthony’s College and Rev. Fr. Stephen Mavely, SDB for providing excellent infrastructure and facilities in the College which enabled me to carry out the research work smoothly. I specially thank Fr. Joseph Nellanatt, SDB for his keen interest and encouragement during the course of this investigation. I must also acknowledge the contributions of Fr. Joby Joseph, SDB and Fr. Steven Saji, SDB to this work.

It gives me immense pleasure to thank Professor K. Ismail, Dean, School of Physical Sciences, North Eastern Hill University. Professor B. Myrboh, Head, Department of Chemistry, North Eastern Hill University. Professor R. K. Poddar. Professor R. H. D. Lyngdoh, Professor R. A. Lal, Professor K. M. Rao and all other faculty members of Department of Chemistry, North Eastern Hill University, Shillong for giving me the opportunity to submit my thesis to the North Eastern Hill University.

I am also grateful to Professor S. Giorgi-Renault and Professor P. Helissey of France for their valuable scientific inputs and suggestions from time to time.

I am grateful to the Directors and the technicians of SAIF-NEHU, Shillong and SAIF-CDRI, Lucknow for providing spectral and analytical services.

I gratefully acknowledge the financial support received from ICAR-NATP CGP-II and thank Dr. Anubrata Das, Director, NRC-Pig, Rani (Assam) for his help.

I wish to thank my laboratory colleagues: Kaushik Chanda, Asem Satyapati Devi and Madhushudan Saha and my classmates Dipanita, Juthika and Snigdha for their help, goodwill and encouragement. I would also like to thank all my other friends whose names I could not mention and with whom I have been associated all these years for their help and co-operation.

I am greatly indebted to my family members: my father for his unfailing faith in me, my mother for her unconditional love & affection and my brother Sarup, sister Aso for their continuous support, love and encouragement.

Above all I thank the almighty for keeping me in good health and for strengthening me day by day to overcome my difficulties and helping me in achieving my goal.
