INTRODUCTION ............................................. (2)

CHAPTER I. Historical sketch of the developments leading to increased attention towards the problem of teacher training in India.
(b) From the distant past to 1879 ......... 1.

CHAPTER II. Historical sketch of the developments in teacher training continued.
(c) From 1879 to the present time ......... 2.

CHAPTER III. Critical assessment of post-graduate teacher training courses of study ............. 4.

CHAPTER IV. Condition of the system of postgraduate teacher training ...................... 10.

CHAPTER V. Survey of post-graduate courses and unorganized unperceived methods
in teacher education ............................. 16.

CHAPTER VI. Facilities for higher degrees in Education and Educational Research in India ........ 121.

CHAPTER VII. Summary and Conclusions ............ 143.

APPENDIX A. Special nature of curricula prescribed by different universities ......................... 155.

APPENDIX B. Major schedules ..................... 157.

APPENDIX C. (i) Names of training institutions and students on rolls in different provinces. 162.
(ii) Training institutions for men and women by sex and part ......................... 172.

APPENDIX D. A consolidated list of books recommended by different universities for B.ED. & B.Ed. 187.

APPENDIX E. A consolidated list of books prescribed for various other courses ............ 178.

INDEX ........... 184.