Acknowledgements

I sincerely thank my two direct guides, Dr. R.S. Nigam and Dr. M.I. Haque, with immense gratitude for not only being there all the time to keep me on the right track but also for their immense help, guidance, motivation and advice at all times. It was due to them that I persevered in this endeavour despite being in a full time professional job. I consider them greatly responsible for providing me the environment for the completion of my dissertation and pointing me out to the right path whenever it appeared as if I have reached a dead end.

My gratitude and thanks go to Mr. S.K. Gupta, then Company Secretary, DCM Ltd., who not only made me meet Dr. R.S. Nigam but who also provided me with valuable inputs during the foundation course of the PhD. I am also deeply thankful to Ms. Mona Gupta, then HR Chief of IT Division, DCM Limited, who helped me at each and every step of this journey.

I would also like to put on record my deep appreciation for Mr. Ranjit Kumar and management of IT Division, DCM Ltd. as well as Mr. Adesh Tyagi and management of Sysnet Ltd. for providing me access to their field staff during data collection phase and for all the field staff who unfailingly tracked the questionnaires in various bank branches. Particular thanks go to the management of DCM Ltd. that allowed me to take sabbaticals at periodic intervals for completion of my course.

I would like to extend my thanks and appreciation to AMU, department of business administration members, Dr. Kaleem Mohd. Khan, Dr. Parvaiz Talib and Prof. Javed Akhtar for providing much needed moral support.
My gratitude and thanks are also due to various members of AIMA, particularly Ms. Rakhi Ruhal, who was instrumental in helping me during the foundation part of the course.

I am also grateful to Dr. Brajesh Kumar who taught Research Methodology, SPSS and its myriad complications to me to the extent that it started making sense to me.

I am deeply indebted to the support I received from my wife, Alka Suri, and two children, Yisha Suri and Prakram Suri whose patience and understanding in us not taking holidays and me not having sufficient time for them during the term of the program helped me to remain steadfast on the path to complete the program.
