Acknowledgements

The printed pages of this thesis hold far more than the culmination of years of my study. These pages also reflect the relationships with many generous and inspiring people I have met since the beginning of my research work. The list is long, but I cherish each contribution to my development as a scholar.

To my supervisor Prof. Arif Inam a gracious mentor who thinks that social change is central to intellectual work and, as such, scholars have a responsibility to use the privileges of academia to imagine and create a better world and showing me by example and through challenging course of work how to think.

To ex. Chairman Prof. Ainaul Haq Khan and present Chairman Prof. Arif Inam for providing me the necessary laboratory and library facilities.

To all the faculty members especially Prof. Firoz Mohammad, Prof. Nafees A. Khan, Dr. Akhtar Inam, Prof. Q. A. Naqvi, Prof. Irshad Mahmood, for their encouragement and advice whenever needed.

To my seniors and lab colleagues for sharing their enthusiasm for and comments on my work: Dr. Irfan, Dr. Shabeena, Dr. Bushra, Mrs. Neelima, Mrs. Tabassum, Ms. Aiman, Mr. Idrees, Mr Yusuf, Mr. Tariq, Mrs. Sangeeta, Ms. Saba.

To my invaluable network of supportive, forgiving, generous and loving friends without whom I could not have survived the process: Dr. Ather, Dr. Zubair, Mr. Waseem, Dr. Shoket, Mr. Aabid, Mr. Qaiser, Mr. Moin, Dr. Faheem, Ms. Rose, Ms. Shahina, Mrs. Humaira, Ms. Zeba and Ms. Asia.

To my parents, Kh. Mohd Iqbal Tak and Mrs. Tahira Iqbal, my brother and sister in law, Dr. Yahya Bakhtiyar and Mrs. Huma Bakhtiyar and my sister Ms. Misbah Batool for their love, support and understanding during the long years of my education.

I also wish to thank to Mr. Rais A. Khan for giving final shape to the manuscript.

Lastly, the financial assistance in the form of scholarship provided by UGC, Govt. of India, New Delhi, is also greatly acknowledged.
