I would be failing in my duty if I do not express my deep sense of gratitude to all those who have helped me during the course of this Study.

I express my heartfelt gratitude to my Supervisor, Dr. K. Bez, Reader in Economics, North-Eastern Hill University, Shillong, whose personal involvement and sustained inspiration has been indispensable for the completion of this work.

My obligations are to Prof. A. Banerjee, who was the guiding spirit at the initial stage of this work. I would also like to express my deep sense of gratefulness to Prof. T. Mathew, Head of the Department of Economics, NEHU, who had rendered all help in my endeavour.

I owe a special thanks to Dr. S.K. Mishra, Reader in Economics, NEHU, and Mr. S.P. Medhi, Principal, Tihu College, for the special interest they took in the work.

I would like to thank all my teachers in the Department for their valuable suggestions from time to time in various stages of my work.

I would also like to place on record my sincere thanks to the officials and employees of the Assam State Agricultural Marketing Board, the Jute Corporation of India, Gauhati, the Agricultural Marketing Office, Howly, those of the Assistant Jute Development Office, Barpeta, the Assam State Federation of Co-operatives, Barpeta, the Regulated Market, Howly, the Assam Agro-Economic Research Centre, Jorhat, the Evaluation and Monitoring Cell, Govt. of Assam, and those of the Agricultural Marketing Office, Government of India, Gauhati, for allowing me to have a free access to their respective offices to collect research materials and data.
for completing this Study.

I must express my sincere thanks to Mrs. Sunova Bez, Mr. Deka, Assistant Professor Assam Agricultural University, Mr. Dev Sarma, Agricultural Extension Officer, attached to Bhawanipur Development Block, Mr. and Mrs. A. Sarma and Mr. and Mrs. S. Choudhury, my colleagues, friends and some of my students who have helped me in various ways.

For their patience and silent endurance during the course of study, away from home, I express my heartfelt thanks to my wife, Pratima, and the children.

I take this opportunity to extend my heartfelt thanks to Mrs. Lucy M. Shangpliang, for her competence and patience throughout the typing stage of the work.

I DEDICATE this humble work to my parents, who have sacrificed all their comforts for my studies, without which, I would not have been what I am to-day.
