Acknowledgement

All praises and thanks are to Allah for every blessing, the benevolent grants.

I am extremely indebted to Prof. A. R. Fatihi, my supervisor for his generous encouragement, continued support and guidance. In building the framework, he has been kind in training me and helping me to build framework for this research work. This thesis could never have been accomplished in the present form without his intellectual inputs.

I would like to express my heartfelt thanks and profound gratitude to my teachers Prof. Imtiaz Hasnain (Chairman, Department of Linguistics, Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh), Dr. Masood A. Beg, Dr. Shabana Hameed, Dr. Sameena Surti, Dr Sabah Uddin, Dr Sayyed Ekhtyar Ali, Dr Talat Zaheer Qamri, Dr Sadiya Husna, who supported my candidature and laid the foundation of my sense of observation.

Thanks are also due to seminar incharge Mr Mohammad Najeebul Hasan, as well as, Mr Goyal, Mr Mohammad Haseebur Rehman, Mr Mohammad Wsiuuddin, Miss Noor, Miss Naima Bilgrami and rest of the members of the staff of the Dept. of Linguistics for acting as my critical palls and contributing in collection as well as analyzing every piece of information that I have used in the study.

I am particularly indebted to Prof. Ranjit Singh Rangila who guided me to brush up the layout and helped in analysis at Mysore. Similarly, the enriching comments of Prof. Ayesha Qidwai on a draft are gratefully acknowledged because of them the research work become enriched and Dr. Hassan Saleh Al-Matari for his assistance with statistical analysis. Thanks also goes to Dr. B. Malikarjun, for his cooperation and relaxations, he provided me for the research submission.
My special thanks goes Mr. Shailendra Batham, he help me a lot in my data collection and proof reading. My soul is indebted to Miss Soada Idris Khan she helps me a lot in proof reading and in preparing the bibliography. I am also very thankful of Mrs. Saba Jamal, she help me during my data collection.

Deep sense of gratitude is due to the students and the fellow research scholars of the Dept. of Linguistics for their participation in the collective urge to investigate into social and linguistics reality.

Very special thanks should be recorded to my Dada, Parents and siblings for their affection, assistance, prayers and sustenance. I am duly grateful to Mr. Feeroze Khan and Bushra Khan for their inspiration, encouragement, generous and beneficial suggestions.

Thanks also go to Miss Mubashra Idris Khan, Mr. Mohammed Shoeb Khan and Miss Sadiya Idris Khan they cooperate me a lot in taking the print out and proof reading of the thesis.

Rushda Idris Khan