ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

My first and foremost thank is to the Almighty, the owner and the creator of the whole universe, without whose help and guidance, nothing comes into existence and who bestowed upon me the courage, patience and strength to embark upon the work and carry it to its completion.

It is indeed a great pleasure to thank and show my indebtedness to my respected teacher and supervisor Dr. Shah Alam, Associate Professor (WC) Department of Psychology, Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh. It would have been impossible for the present work to take this form without his tireless efforts, scholarly advice and guidance. I am fortunate to have the opportunity to learn from him and have enormously benefited from his vision to allow me to carry out an independent research.

I wish to take this opportunity to express my sincere thanks to Chairman, Department of Psychology and Dr. Shamim Ansari Department of Psychology, Aligarh Muslim University Aligarh for his persistent encouragement and inspiration. I also would like to express my gratitude to all my teachers for their cooperation and favourable attitude in providing me the necessary research facilities to complete this work. I am also grateful to the non-teaching staff for their support.

As a special gesture of appreciation, I would like to thank my colleagues and friends Mahvish, Rushda, Bilquees, Tauseef, Omar, Zahoor, Jyoti and especially Seema & Shabana for their moral and emotional support.

I do not find appropriate words to express my most sincere gratitude to my father Mr. Ali Muttaqui Rizvi and my mother Mrs. Quaiser Rizvi, who have brought me up to this wonderful moment and my sister Ms. Nuzhat Fatma to provide me every possible help whenever needed. I thank my sisters Subuhi, Deeba, Aeliya, Bushra and Mishkat for instilling in me the confidence and drive for pursuing my research. I feel blessed to have a supportive and loving family. I would be failing in my efforts if I don’t acknowledge the support of my cousins Naz, Jeoabbas, Akhlaq, Najmi, Zafar, Zair, Zakir and especially my nephew Mohd Jaushan who has supported me a lot to accomplish my data collection from the various banks. My father in law Mr. Shamim Haider, mother in law Mrs. Najma Begum and sister in law Itrat Fatma, Nuzhat Fatma & Sughra Fatma all encouraged me a lot to complete this piece of research.

Last, but not the least, my heartfelt gratitude is due to Salman Haider, I have no words in acknowledging my husband for his utmost affection and sincere cooperation. His morale boosting and encouragement always filled me with vigorous energy and vitality to achieve my cherished goal.
