ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I take this privilege to acknowledge my indebtedness to my guide Prof. T. Mathew, Head of the Department, Department of Economics, North Eastern Hill University, Shillong, for his valuable guidance, unwavering enthusiasm, cordial and wise counsel throughout the course of this investigation. It was his moral and inspiring encouragement which helped me in getting over the difficulties associated with it.

I acknowledge gratefully to the Rev. Fr. Stephen Mavely, Principal, St Anthony's College, Shillong, for kindly encouraging me to undertake this project at the early stage of my career. During the course of this research several helpful suggestions were offered by prof. Chakravarty, Head of Commerce Department, St Anthony's College, Shillong. Prof. Ina Nichols, for reading through the thesis and several other colleagues of the college.

The faculty members of the economics Department in the University particularly Dr. Bez, had given their valuable time and patience.

Several people have helped me in the course of my work. I am extremely thankful to Mr. Reddy, Indian Bank, Mr. P. Kamaraju, Joint Director, Department of Statistical and Economics Evaluation Centre, Mr. Myrboh, Managing Director, MIDC, Mr. Kongwir, Dy. Managing Director, MIDC,
