CONTENTS

acknowledgement

preface

CHAPTER I : INDIA'S FOREIGN POLICY
  Introduction; Chief Determinants; National Interest and Foreign Policy; Main Tenets of Foreign Policy; Preservation of Peace; Non-alignment; India and the U.N.O.; Anti-colonialism; India and the Commonwealth of Nations.

CHAPTER II : AGENCIES IN THE FOREIGN POLICY MAKING IN INDIA
  Role of the Cabinet; The role of the Prime Minister - Nehru; Role of the Ministry of External Affairs - Organisation and Functions; Role of Parliament and its Committees.

CHAPTER III: INSTRUMENTS OF PARLIAMENTARY CONTROL OF FOREIGN POLICY
  Question-Hour - Origin; Procedural changes during the III Lok Sabha; Rules relating to Questions; Allotment of days for Questions; Short Notice Questions; Half an hour Discussion; Question Hour in practice and its utility; Motions and Resolutions; No-Confidence Motions; Motion for Adjournment; Parliamentary Debates as instrument of control of foreign policy and its significance.
CHAPTER IV: ROLE OF OPPOSITION

Introduction; Importance of Opposition in the Indian Parliamentary Democracy; Sino-India Border Dispute and the major Opposition Parties; Communist Party of India; Jan-Sangh; Swatantra and the Praja Socialist Party; Utility of Opposition.

CHAPTER V: SINO-INDIA RELATIONS AND THE BORDER DISPUTE

Introduction; McMahon Line and the Simla-Conference; Tibetan Revolt; The Dispute develops; The Three Sectors; Border-Dispute and its historical background; Chinese invasion vis a vis India's policy; Colombo Proposals.

CHAPTER VI: DEBATES - 1962 - A CASE STUDY

Introduction; Questions in the 1962 Lok Sabha; Demands for Grants; Papers Laid on the Table; The Debates on the Motions; Half an Hour Discussions; Adjournment Motions; Ministerial Statements; Influence of Parliament.

CHAPTER VII: ROLE OF PARLIAMENT

Constitutional position of the Indian Parliament; Measures of Influence; Question-Hour, Debates, Motions and Resolutions; Demands for Grants; Parliament and International Treaties; Parliamentary Committees and their Role; Consultative Committee of Parliament - Organisation and functions; Financial control of policy; Factors eclipsing the role of Parliament; Parliament and the Sino-India Border-Dispute; Influence of Parliament.