ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I have great pleasure in recording my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. Ms. Kaniz Khwaja Ahmad, Reader, Department of English, under whose supervision I completed this thesis on The Themes and Imagery in the Poetry of Philip Larkin. Her able guidance nurtured my research as well as writing capabilities.

I heartily thank Prof. S. Wiqar Hussain, Chairman, Department of English, for his help and advice. Special gratitude is due to Prof. Sardar Ali Zaidi for his encouragement when the thesis was in its early stages, and to Mr. Faiz Ahmed Ferguson, for absolutely essential material he helped procure on Larkin. I am also grateful to Prof. Asad-ur-Rehman, of City University, New York who also cared to send me books required in this research. Particular acknowledgement is made to British Council Library at New Delhi, which was readily forthcoming with its reading material on Larkin. The Libraries at Jamia Millia Islamia and Delhi University were also very helpful. Of course, The Maulana Azad Library, Aligarh also proved rich with the relevant articles and other critical material for this work.

But all the while it was the inspiration from my Sheikh and parents that helped me to take the thesis to its final conclusion.

Special thanks are due to Mr. Rabat Hasan, who took personal interest and expeditiously gave me the computer printouts of the thesis.

My special gratitude is due to my brothers, sisters and all my family members, whose enthusiasm and encouragement kept me at my work.
