Whoever obeys the Prophet, thereby obeys Allah. (Al Nisa 4:80)

And whoever obeys the Prophet, thereby obeys Allah. (Al Nisa 4:80)

Al Miqdam ibn Ma'dikarib reported Rasul Allah ﷺ as saying: Beware! I have been given the Qur'an and the same thing like it, yet the time is coming when a man replete on his couch will say: keep to the Qur'an; what you find in it to be permissible treat as permissible, and what you find in it to be prohibited treat as prohibited. PREFACE AND ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

All praise and thanks are to Allah, the Sustainer and the Compassionate. It is His benevolence and bounties which made me capable to submit this thesis.

Throughout the entire undertaking of this Ph.D programme I have become greatly indebted to a large number of persons. The very inspiration to embark upon this programme, came from my supervisor, Prof. Syed Muhammad Yunus Gilani, Head, Department of Islamic Studies, University of Kashmir, I have great pleasure in expressing my profound sense of gratitude to him without whose encouragement and guidance I could not even think to complete my thesis in Jail. In spite of his busy schedule, he spared some of his precious time for me and on the request of Superintendent Central Jail Srinagar, used to see me in Jail fortnightly to guide and supervise my Ph.D programme. Soon after I joined Department of Islamic Studies as a regular Ph.D scholar I was arrested and sentenced for life by apex court in a case I had been earlier acquitted by TADA Court at Jammu, solely on the basis of so-called confessional statement. It was time when I had lost hope to complete my thesis but his sincerity, honestly and uncompromising faithfulness to his field, to the students, with marvellous ability to motivate his students made it possible for me to continue this work in Jail.

It is the support, sincere cooperation and courageous attitude of my virtuous wife which never allow me to feel helpless in Jail. Regarding my research work she practically worked as a librarian and not only made available to me books and other written material which I had collected myself during my visits to Sa’udi Arabia, Pakistan and United Kingdom but whenever I felt need of any book relevant to my topic she made it available to me. It is because of her that I am able to achieve my goal of continuing the higher studies.

No words can express my thanks to Dr. Muhammad Sultan Lone, Superintendent Central Jail Srinagar, who not only facilitated my supervisor’s visit in Jail to guide me but also allowed me to keep with me throughout this period all my books and other written material regarding my research.

I acknowledge the sincere and expert guidance of my fellow inmates in Jail, Mufti Faid al Wahid Qasmi, a well known Islamic jurist and scholar of Jammu and Maulana ‘Abd al Ahad Nadwi who assisted me in Jail. I am also grateful to my inmates in Barrack No.3 particularly to Shaikh Sajjad Ahmad, M.B.A, Mir Sajjad Ahmad, M.A Arabic, Arshad Ahmad Bhat, Faruq Ahmad, Muhammad Ashraf Wani and others without whose sincere help and cooperation it would have not been possible for me to complete this thesis.
I wish to pay my regards and thanks to Maulana Muhammad Yunus Qasmi, patron Dar al 'Ulum Dawudia, Srinagar and Maulana ‘Abd al Jabbar, who have been kind enough to provide me the literature regarding Imam Ibn Taimiyyah and oblige me at every occasion.

The incharge Librarian of Shah-i-Hamadan Institute of Islamic Studies, Zahoor Ahmad, the Librarian of the Institute of Islamic Studies, 'Aligarh Muslim University, the Librarian of the Institute of Islamic Studies, Jamia Millia Islamia, Delhi, the Librarian of the Hamdard University, Delhi, ‘Abd al Malik Mujahid of Dar al Salam Publishers and Distributors Riyad Sa'udi Arabia, the International Institute of Islamic thought, Virginia USA, the incharge Librarian of Central Jail Srinagar, Incharge IGNOU Centre of Central Jail Srinagar Kashmir all deserve my sincere appreciation and gratitude. I am also thankful to Miss Samina, Syed Muhammad Tahir, Irshad Ahmad Rather and Sajad Ahmad Khan who laboured devotionally to type this thesis on computer.
